Any work of art dignifies life.

~James Ponsoldt

And don't rush to make movies. Movies should be made when they're absolutely ready. There's too many bad movies being made.

~James Ponsoldt

There have been so many instances in my life where movies, music, or literature has made my life tangibly better.

~James Ponsoldt

Making movies is really hard, and it can be humbling. And once you put them out into the world, you can't control how people will respond to it.

~James Ponsoldt

Whether a project is large or small, it doesn't matter much to me as long as I feel I can serve the story as best as possible.
