The sexual abuse and exploitation of children is one of the most vicious crimes conceivable, a violation of mankind's most basic duty to protect the innocent.

~James T. Walsh

The IRA has abandoned its armed struggle in pursuit of its goals by political means. This must be fully acknowledged. Continued challenge does nothing but obstruct and inhibit the peace process.

~James T. Walsh

Medicaid is a vital safety net for New York's poor and vulnerable, young and old alike.

~James T. Walsh

How we continue to fund Medicare and Medicaid into the future is a pressing issue of national concern.

~James T. Walsh

The Children's Safety Act will help protect children from the perpetrators of these vile crimes by strengthening notification requirements for sex offenders and increasing criminal penalties.

~James T. Walsh

As a civil rights leader, Mrs. King's vision of racial peace and nonviolent social change was a fortifying staple in advancing the civil rights movement.

~James T. Walsh

Any Congressional agreement of an arbitrary time table to bring our troops home before we have accomplished our mission is unacceptable and could potentially increase the risk to our soldiers.

~James T. Walsh

Everyone agrees that our ultimate goal is to establish a free, open and democratic Iraqi government and bring our men and women in uniform home as soon as possible.

~James T. Walsh

Looking long term, a stronger, wealthier, and more stable Central America next door benefits the United States' own safety, security, and economy.

~James T. Walsh

The U.S. Armed Forces are the best trained, best equipped fighting forces in the world.

~James T. Walsh

Rest assured that my support for any eventual reform package will be based firmly upon what is in the best interests of the people of Upstate New York, not any party or president.

~James T. Walsh

And yet 50 percent of the kids who start high school in the United States today do not finish high school.
