For me, the sound design and the musical score is a big part of what makes scary movies work.

~James Wan

I think the financial restraint really pushes me as a director to be more creative with the way I shoot the film.

~James Wan

I think you can say a lot with the movement of your camera but you can also say a lot by keeping it still.

~James Wan

We're not just horror fans. We're film fans. I love action films. I want to do action films. I want to do romantic comedies. I love all this stuff. So, if I find the good material, I'll do it.

~James Wan

I always believe your instinct is the most correct instinct.

~James Wan

You know music and sound design can be very powerful with how you use it but also the absence of sound can say a lot as well.

~James Wan

The whole wide world scares me! Seriously. I think what happens in our world is so much more frightening than anything I can come up with in my movies.

~James Wan

There's really no reason to rehash something that you've already seen.

~James Wan

I think you cannot be too complacent. I think that's dangerous and you cannot take anything for granted.

~James Wan

I think storytelling is storytelling. It doesn't matter what format it's shot on.

~James Wan

If your franchise has been around for awhile you have to find ways to keep it fresh.

~James Wan

I don't like talking about sequels or spinoffs or franchise until they actually happen, until they actually work with the audience.

~James Wan

Whether it's a popcorn movie or some really intellectual sociopolitical movie, I think to some degree they're all influenced by the social climate that we're living in.

~James Wan

Marketing has taken such a complete shift, thanks to the internet.

~James Wan

I'm a big movie fan, and I want to make movies in every genre. I want to make my romantic comedy one day.
