Anytime you get to join a group of people you admire and respect, you want to keep those doors open.

~James Wolk

In a great play or a great film, there's a rehearsal period and they find this character. On TV, everything moves fast.

~James Wolk

When I was young, my parents made me listen to old music and watch Jimmy Durante. I fell in love with the whole mystique of acting and entertainment.

~James Wolk

When you feel moved by the story, you want to tell that story.

~James Wolk

In my everyday life, I'm a jeans and button-up shirt kind of guy.

~James Wolk

I always feel like hard work leads the way, and from there, I leave it up to the powers that be.

~James Wolk

I worked in television now for a few years. I think summer has become a really exciting time for television shows. And I think it's become a time for shows to distinguish themselves.

~James Wolk

No one ever judges their own self.

~James Wolk

I just grew up loving acting and loving entertainment.

~James Wolk

I have a dog. I'm a dog lover.

~James Wolk

Often in television, you read a script and you're amazed that you get the scene given to you.

~James Wolk

My dad used to put me in front of the TV screen and made me watch old Jimmy Durante and Dean Martin movies. I just always loved entertainment.

~James Wolk

Birds always seem like they're swooping down on you.

~James Wolk

What's been exciting for me is to read the scripts.

~James Wolk

Getting a second thing isn't always easy in this busy, competitive television market.

~James Wolk

Acting is great. It's so much fun. It's a job where you literally get to do something that's a great experience, and then you try a new experience, and you take things from all of it.

~James Wolk

As an actor, that's the most important thing. You want to be able to let go and not hold onto anything, so that you can give an honest portrayal and performance.
