Arizona, our beautiful state, was built on mining.

~Jan Brewer

I took an oath to protect the people of Arizona, and that's what I'm going to do. I'm going to keep pushing in that direction.

~Jan Brewer

Ninety-nine point nine percent of the people that are gun owners are very responsible.

~Jan Brewer

I always tried to do what I believed is right and I've always voted the way that I believe was the right way for my constituency, and that's what I'm doing when I govern.

~Jan Brewer

I believe boycotts are wrong.

~Jan Brewer

So you know, I think that the federal government, the Democrats, and President Obama are selling a lot of hope and change, but no delivery of any of those promises.

~Jan Brewer

Our law enforcement agencies have found bodies in the desert, either buried or just lying out there, that have been beheaded.

~Jan Brewer

A nation without borders is like a house without walls - it collapses. And that is what is going to happen to our wonderful America.

~Jan Brewer
