I keep all of my letters, postcards, and thank you notes. I'll keep them forever!

~Jane Levy

Your imagination is your most important tool, as an actor, as cheesy as that sounds.

~Jane Levy

The whole thing about doing TV is that you never know what's going to happen. You just have to go with it and go with the flow.

~Jane Levy

I'm from the suburbs and where I'm from didn't necessarily have people like you see in 'Suburgatory,' but along those lines and I think people will laugh at themselves. And it's lighthearted.

~Jane Levy

I am really attracted to films. It's nice to do something new, all the time. That's why I like being an actor.

~Jane Levy

I feel like I'll always feel that I have so much to learn and I don't feel uncomfortable in my skin.

~Jane Levy

I'm always changing and learning about acting, and about myself. I just hope to always keep doing that.

~Jane Levy

It's hard to learn about comedy from comedians. Comedy is not something that you necessarily learn or can imitate. You're funny or you're not, and you hope what you're doing is funny.

~Jane Levy

I'm like a weird actor. I feel like I'm vastly uneducated when it comes to the cinema.

~Jane Levy

My boyfriend and I don't get to live in the same city all the time, and the fact that I can text him or call him or even Skype with him is so wonderful.

~Jane Levy

I developed a sense of self before moving to crazy Hollywood, which was really important.

~Jane Levy

I haven't even watched that many movies, I'm like a weird actor.

~Jane Levy

Violence is a part of the world and life, and you shouldn't have to take it out of stories.

~Jane Levy

I like doing both comedy and drama. I'm not really feeling more drawn to one over the other. I also like dramedies. I like movies and TV shows that are mixtures of the two.

~Jane Levy

As an actor, you realize that your whole life is about arrivals and departures. You're always meeting people, you get really close, and then you all have to leave.

~Jane Levy

I find the film world very romantic. I want to try to be in more movies. When you're on a TV show and you do the same thing for years and years, it can get a little bit boring.

~Jane Levy

If you're comfortable with someone, you feel creatively free. Whether it's a comedic scene or a dramatic one, you don't feel self-conscious because you feel safe with the people that you're around.

~Jane Levy

It's always so much fun to create backstory. Even if there are more clues in the script, you still always have to invent a lot for yourself. I think that comes naturally.

~Jane Levy

I find that going to bed without my phone or an iPad makes me sleep better and helps me wake up without obsessing over emails. It makes my day better.

~Jane Levy

I try not to live my life on my phone or my social media pages. Most of the time, I feel better and happier and I learn more when I'm not on my phone, all day, or a computer, or an iPad.

~Jane Levy

Costume is a huge part of getting into character. Your body soaks in what you're wearing, and you turn into someone else.

~Jane Levy

Whats fun about being an actress is you change all the time.
