I was not the kid that hung out at the arcade.

~Jane Lynch

No one's just going to hand you a career. I waited for years for someone to hand me one and it never happened.

~Jane Lynch

You can't make a cloudy day a sunny day, but can embrace it and decide it's going to be a good day after all.

~Jane Lynch

I just had to be strong enough to allow myself to be vulnerable. Great Lesson. For art and for life.

~Jane Lynch

You just have to decide how close you want them. Not every person in your life needs to be your best friend: some can be friends or just friendly acquaintances.

~Jane Lynch

Along time ago I asked myself do I want to be right or do I want to be kind; I opted for kind.

~Jane Lynch

I try not to plan ahead. I just kind of try to think in the moment. I always believe everything will work out the way it's supposed to.

~Jane Lynch

That was the most offensive thing I've ever seen in 20 years of teaching - and that includes an elementary school production of hair.

~Jane Lynch

I never went through a biological clock experience. I never even heard it ticking.

~Jane Lynch

A lot of people are curious why I'm a lesbian - ladies and gentlemen, the cast of Entourage.

~Jane Lynch

Stay fluid and roll with those changes. Life is just a big extended improvisation.

~Jane Lynch

I've just always loved singing, and I come from a family that loves singing around the kitchen table.

~Jane Lynch

Don't deprive yourself of the exciting journey your life can be when you relinquish the need to have goals and a blueprint.

~Jane Lynch

Making people laugh is a really fabulous thing because it means you're getting deep inside somebody, into their psyche, and their ability to look at themselves.

~Jane Lynch

I stopped watching television like a fiend once I got into college.

~Jane Lynch

Steve Carell, we've been nodding at each other for years now.

~Jane Lynch

The thing about Christmas music is the recognizability. It's great.

~Jane Lynch

I know that Marianne Williamson cannot be bought

~Jane Lynch

I have acting technique; I have singing technique; I don't have a writing technique to fall back on.

~Jane Lynch

I was a huge 'Friends' fan. I had a very small part. I played a real-estate agent in the very last season.

~Jane Lynch

Football is very masculine and, to me, a metaphor for war.

~Jane Lynch

I spent so much of my younger life drinking, and being drunk makes learning to be a grown-up kind of hard.

~Jane Lynch

I'm kind of a manic exerciser. I'll like exercise for a week and be crazy, and then I won't do it for six months.

~Jane Lynch

I'm a person who likes habit and knowing what my job is.

~Jane Lynch

Do I feel famous? I feel more famous than I did 10 years ago, absolutely.

~Jane Lynch

I do like to go to movies. I like to be in the theater. I like the event of it.

~Jane Lynch

Artists are free to push boundaries to make art. But when pushing boundaries is their only aim, the result is usually bad art.

~Jane Lynch

I go to coffee shops for my outlet. Which is just not healthy at all.

~Jane Lynch

I waved to you outside but then I realized it was just one of those inflatable parking lot gorillas.

~Jane Lynch

I don't wear particular designers. I wear whoever fits me well.

~Jane Lynch

I have to admit that I was a little nervous when I showed up for my first official 'Wreck-It Ralph' recording session.

~Jane Lynch

It's a world where high school students look roughly twenty-four.

~Jane Lynch

We still listen to the original lush arrangements with the orchestras.

~Jane Lynch

My first love, in my head, believe it or not, was Ron Howard.

~Jane Lynch

I'm kind of a 'Fix-It Felix' video girl. I like the simpler, sweeter kind of games.

~Jane Lynch

I know it sounds new age-y, but what I've truly come up with is that you really need to trust that you're on your own path, as long as you stay true to it and you show up, which is 99% of it.

~Jane Lynch

To this day, I still would choose the angst over something easier, when I really don't have to.

~Jane Lynch

But now that I've matured, I've realized that - at the end of the day - what's really important is the work, not what people think of me.

~Jane Lynch

When I was younger, I actually wanted to be in the spotlight. To have people want me, want to have a piece of me.
