It's just better to promote love and fairness and equality than it is to promote something you think is based on your religious beliefs.

~Jane Wiedlin

I personally know women who are Breast Cancer survivors and will do all I can to support the cause. Besides, I love boobies!

~Jane Wiedlin

I've always gravitated towards songwriting that happens easily and spontaneously, because those have always been my best songs.

~Jane Wiedlin

I used to think when I was in the Go-Go's that we were as wild as any of the boy bands.

~Jane Wiedlin

People have always told me a lot that I remind them of Joyce DeWitt.

~Jane Wiedlin

It's one thing to be twenty and touring the world, but doing it in your forties, you wake up with aches and pains.

~Jane Wiedlin

If I believed in hell, I'd definitely be going there.

~Jane Wiedlin

If I was in charge, I'd keep doing The Go-Go's forever, but it's a band so everyone has their say.

~Jane Wiedlin

Badfinger were a great band

~Jane Wiedlin

It's too heart-wrenching doing the solo thing. I throw myself into it and get so excited, and then 2000 people buy it and you're, like, 'Oh. I guess it's not that good after all.'

~Jane Wiedlin

I love being a Go-Go. It definitely has its ups and downs, and we have a very intense energy with each other.

~Jane Wiedlin

The Go-Go's were like my first babies.

~Jane Wiedlin

Sometimes when you get old, you get a star on Hollywood Boulevard.

~Jane Wiedlin

I find acting slightly nerve racking, but I like the challenge.
