When you're a young English person who wants to be an actress and you have dreams, you dream of being Vanessa Redgrave or Judi Dench.

~Janet McTeer

The older you get, the better you get, because you've seen more. You don't necessarily have to go through a lot, but you have to witness it in order to recreate it.

~Janet McTeer

I was very nervous about the accent. I was very nervous about being an American.

~Janet McTeer

It's naive to think there is a woman in the world who isn't brought up to believe that they are waiting for their soul mate. You even see it in Disney.

~Janet McTeer

Put a Post-It note on your mirror that says: 'Someone has to succeed. There's no reason why it shouldn't be me.' Repeat before every audition.

~Janet McTeer

You can't keep things secret in a film anymore. Once you realize the secret's out, you might as well go with it and not pretend that it's not there.

~Janet McTeer

I did 'Tumbleweeds' for fun. I did it because I loved it and I hardly even got paid.

~Janet McTeer

I would often go on as myself, when I wasn't working. And the first time

I went on as myself, two people came up and asked me what I was doing and who I was.

~Janet McTeer

I have become a marketing tool and I feel very uncomfortable with that. There's no space for me to express myself.

~Janet McTeer

People are calling a lot, sending scripts my way. Yes, it's wonderful because, let's face it, there aren't many wonderful scripts for women over the age of 10.

~Janet McTeer

My mother and father are still together after forty something years. I lived in one place till I was 6. I lived in another place from when I was 6 till I was 17.

~Janet McTeer

I do mostly British projects, and for family reasons and life reasons Britain's my home, where I have a lovely garden.

~Janet McTeer

I've always thought if you watch the performance and you don't know about the person, then you only see the performance.

~Janet McTeer

I have very girly hands and I use them a lot when I talk in a way that I think is very feminine.

~Janet McTeer

I just want people to focus on the performance.

~Janet McTeer

New Yorkers are either the nicest or the rudest.
