It would be unwise to say the least, irresponsible of us at the TSA, at the Homeland Security Department not to evolve our technology to match the changing threat environment that we inhabit.

~Janet Napolitano

You can't imagine a world, quite frankly, without a safe and secure aviation system. And so our job is to really focus on that, and what we need to do to keep it safe and secure.

~Janet Napolitano

The last thing the Department of Homeland Security is about is infringing on anybody's constitutionally protected rights.

~Janet Napolitano

I have long been a proponent of a guest-worker program between the United States and Mexico, and in particular I have proposed that Arizona would be an ideal location for a pilot project.

~Janet Napolitano

If American schooling is inadequate now, just imagine how much more obsolete it will be when today's kindergarten students graduate from high school in just 12 years.

~Janet Napolitano

So not only do we need to deal with threats as they emerge, we have to be thinking in anticipation of future threats, and the things we do have to be things that enable the system to continue to work.

~Janet Napolitano

And we ask the American people to play an important part of our layered defense. We ask for cooperation, patience and a commitment to vigilance in the face of a determined enemy.

~Janet Napolitano

Public schools were designed as the great equalizers of our society - the place where all children could have access to educational opportunities to make something of themselves in adulthood.

~Janet Napolitano

Each and every one of the security measures we implement serves an important goal: providing safe and efficient air travel for the millions of people who rely on our aviation system every day.

~Janet Napolitano

The United States and Arizona are both losing jobs to offshore locations.

~Janet Napolitano

I've appointed a task force to take a fresh look at the color-code system and whether we should retain it, change it or scrap it.

~Janet Napolitano

You show me a 50-foot wall and I'll show you a 51-foot ladder.

~Janet Napolitano

It is fair to say there are individuals in the United States who ascribe to al-Qaeda-type beliefs.

~Janet Napolitano

It drove home, personally, the value of early detection and education and intervention.

~Janet Napolitano

Such a system would be very, very expensive and laborious to have, given the kinds of border we have. Scientists and engineers aren't even sure they have the technology to make it work

~Janet Napolitano

One of the most striking elements of today's threat picture is that plots to attack America increasingly involve American residents and citizens.

~Janet Napolitano

I believe we have to move, eventually in our country, toward a system of public financing that really works for candidates running for federal office. I will support that as president.
