I'm more of the sneaker-wearing, computer geek type.

~Jared Polis

We are a diverse country, but we are one country. And we are at our best when we come together as Americans, not despite our differences, but in celebration of them.

~Jared Polis

I'm too busy thinking what I'm going to say next to remember what I've said, but my staff tells me I'm sometimes funny. Not always on purpose, though.

~Jared Polis

The foundation of a strong economy and job creation begins with providing every child in America with the best possible education, including students with disabilities.

~Jared Polis

Congress seems to thrive on breaking promises and passing unfunded mandates down to local government. It's really just a matter of priorities.

~Jared Polis

Agribusinesses should never dictate the quality of school meals.

~Jared Polis

Gay marriage won't be more of an issue 25 years from now than interracial marriage is today.

~Jared Polis

But parents and schools have their priorities; making sure our kids eat right because research shows a clear connection between nutrition and student performance in school.

~Jared Polis

As long as you have money to live then it's not a terribly important thing. If you don't have enough to live, then it's very important thing.

~Jared Polis

Many rogue sites exist to make a profit and others are enormously expensive to maintain. If they don't have the resources to continue stealing intellectual property, they'll wither away.

~Jared Polis

When the money dries up, the sites die off. That's the way to go after piracy.

~Jared Polis

Lady Gaga is one of the most amazingly talented musicians to bring her gifts to humanity in a long time.

~Jared Polis

From the newest arrivals to our Native American brothers and sisters, we are one America.

~Jared Polis

Big food companies have their priorities, which include selling cheap, unhealthy foods at high profits.

~Jared Polis

It's easier to stop bad things than to pass good things.
