Yeah I'm chillin' on a dirt road, laid back swervin' like I'm George Jones.

~Jason Aldean

I had a friend, Melissa, who was 28 years old. She was my best friend's wife, and she was my wife's best friend. She died of breast cancer. When she passed away back in 2004 was the last time I cried.

~Jason Aldean

Hearing people clapping draws you in pretty quick. It's like bungee cord jumping - it's a rush; you just want to do it again.

~Jason Aldean

I had no idea 'Big Green Tractor' was going to be as big a hit as it was. You just can't predict those things.

~Jason Aldean

I didn't get into music to become famous and I didn't get into music to become rich either - I got into because I liked it.

~Jason Aldean

I don't think I really have any wisdom. Stay out of trouble. Good luck. Stay away from women because they will burn you, haha.

~Jason Aldean

I think it's important to do things that you're interested in. I think it's important to have other outlets away from the music industry.

~Jason Aldean

No matter what you do, you're going to have people who have something to say about something you do. You can't please anybody.

~Jason Aldean

I'm a country boy. I'm from Georgia.

~Jason Aldean

There's nothing cooler than a good fitting, worn-in pair of Wrangler jeans, so it's great that with the new Retro line, my fans can go out and rock the same styles that I love.

~Jason Aldean

I think country music is obviously a great form of music. I think it's cool and has mass appeal.

~Jason Aldean

I love fried okra. The fact that it's okra makes me feel like it's good for you - I forget the fact that it's fried.

~Jason Aldean

I think every artist wants to have that 'Grammy award winner' tag in front of their name.

~Jason Aldean

Country music artists are staying true to their roots, keeping it country but throwing a little bit of rock flair in there which I think is a good thing.

~Jason Aldean

I love playing music. And that's what it's all about.

~Jason Aldean

Obviously when you're making music, you want it to get out to as many people as possible. You want to reach as many people as you can.

~Jason Aldean

I have a love of baseball and a love of music.

~Jason Aldean

My dad encouraged anything I wanted to do, especially music. Actually he drove me around to places where I could play.

~Jason Aldean

Typing in the name of a song and downloading the song you really have no connection with the artist at that point. So I think it is still important to have physical CDs and stuff like that.

~Jason Aldean

I would say, 'Go ask any couple that's been married for 30, 40, 50 years... It hasn't always been roses.'

~Jason Aldean

I'm very particular about the kind of music that I record and sing, and it would be the same way about the kind of movies that I would do.

~Jason Aldean

If it takes you a year to cut a record, I don't know, you need to find something else to do. It really shouldn't take that long.

~Jason Aldean

There's a lot of people I'd love to work with at some point, but I think the song has to be the right thing. It has to be the right fit.

~Jason Aldean

If the right thing comes along and you get an opportunity to be a part of something you believe in, and you think it's cool and want to put your name on it, then you should.

~Jason Aldean

I think everybody would love to say they were in a movie. Whether or not I'm any good at it, I don't know.

~Jason Aldean

I try to record music that people can relate to.

~Jason Aldean

I grew up listening to all kinds of music, everything from country to rock, pop, R&B and even rap, so for me, music is music and a great song is a great song.

~Jason Aldean

You don't want to get too ahead of yourself and go out thinking you can play stadiums every night, and they end up being about half-full.

~Jason Aldean

She gets on you under your skin like a tattoo she'll always be there!

~Jason Aldean

Gimme some of that you and me, Some of that way back when, A little bit of wild and free I wanna feel that again

~Jason Aldean

People see you onstage and the glamorous side, but they don't see you traveling 600 miles a night, eating truck stop food and spending by yourself staring at walls.

~Jason Aldean

After my first No. 1 song back in 2006, I worried I may never have another one.

~Jason Aldean

I got a hat deal with Resistol, where I have my own line of cowboy hats.

~Jason Aldean

I grew up listening to everything. And rock and roll has always been a big, big part of it - as big a part of what I do as any other type of music.

~Jason Aldean

'She's Country' obviously changed a lot of things for us and pretty much, I think, doubled our crowd size in just a few months time.

~Jason Aldean

It's the only time that I'm ever nervous on stage, is when we're doing live TV. Especially an awards show, because I know you can't fix it.

~Jason Aldean

It feels good when your hometown supports you, and Macon's always done that with us. Every time we come here, it's an event - which is nice.

~Jason Aldean

My golf score is really bad. I don't know. I'm definitely not a good golfer. Off the tee box, I can drive it about 275, and I'm in the fairway about 99% of the time. It's my next shot that needs work.

~Jason Aldean

Records are one thing, and obviously, without hit songs, you don't have the opportunity to do your shows. But my live show has always been my selling tool.

~Jason Aldean

My goal is that when the last song is over, and you're walking back to the parking lot, you're already on your phone searching to find the next show.

~Jason Aldean

My mom was a single mom, and she had enough on her plate. I knew when I was doing something I wasn't supposed to, and I tried to keep her from finding out about it. I did a pretty good job of that.

~Jason Aldean

Macon has such a rich musical history - and the state of Georgia, as well.

~Jason Aldean

I've been wearing Wrangler jeans for more than a decade now, all the way back to when I first started playing clubs in my teens in Georgia.

~Jason Aldean

You're not going to hear me singing songs about Wall Street because I don't know anything about that.

~Jason Aldean

I know I'm not gonna please everybody when I make a record. I don't let that affect any of my decisions.

~Jason Aldean

I had an opportunity to play baseball in college, but I just didn't want to go to school. I started focusing on my music and it was game over!

~Jason Aldean

I haven't figured out why people like what they like. I don't know. I wish I did. I could sell that to everybody, man, and be a millionaire.
