Kermit was the Everyman, the original Tom Hanks, but I have a special place in my heart for Fozzie Bear. The classic borderline hacky entertainer.

~Jason Segel

Part of growing up is not waiting in line at a hipster breakfast restaurant. The eggs taste the same across the street. I promise.

~Jason Segel

I've been 6'4" since I was 12. Goofy is somewhere in the lexicon.

~Jason Segel

There is a little bit of hubris to want to change the past. It implies that you know better - that things didn't happen the way that they were supposed to.

~Jason Segel

Our job is to become OK with who we are and what our life has been - and keep enduring.

~Jason Segel

A man can certainly be a Muppet. Being a Muppet is a state of mind. It's about finding that little part of you that's unique, and not being embarrassed by it, but cherishing it.

~Jason Segel

People have a lot less leniency for some reason for women straying from a relationship than they do for men.

~Jason Segel

That's the best advice I can give - when you're trying to write a comedy, first write a drama, and then make it funny.

~Jason Segel

If you can find the line between sympathetic and creepy, you have reached a very funny area.

~Jason Segel

Honestly, I have come to believe that everything is in the order it's in for a reason. I am happy with who I am today.

~Jason Segel

I'm better looking in person.

~Jason Segel

I have always felt like romantic comedies are incredibly predictable. You look at the poster and you know those two are ending up together at the end of the movie.

~Jason Segel

Fozzie Bear has so many bear puns in this script - like, 'Trac is grizzly!' 'This is unbearable!' It's the greatest.

~Jason Segel

For some reason, I was born without a sense of embarrassment or shame.

~Jason Segel

When you're a kid, Kermit is Tom Hanks. He's Tom Hanks for kids or Jimmy Stewart for kids. He's truly the every man.

~Jason Segel

I like to be challenged acting wise and I like to do things that I'm scared of.

~Jason Segel

The first time my mom found condoms in my room, she literally started crying hysterically.

~Jason Segel

I sold my first script when I was 21 - this kids' adventure movie that never got made. I just bought that one back, actually. I'm pretty psyched about it.

~Jason Segel

I have a similar issue with people who hire me as I do with women. 'You have to have a particular taste to want to be around me. I have a slightly askew view.
