I didn't get my first car until I was 22. It was a BMW 1602 and now I've got it back I'm waiting to restore it.

~Jay Kay

Every now and again I need to get away from everything. I'm quite a hidey-hole kind of a guy.

~Jay Kay

I may be the prat in the hat, that's cool, but I drive an Aston Martin DB5.

~Jay Kay

The mid-life crisis is just those times when you're not so into the things you were when you were younger.

~Jay Kay

When I listen to Radio 1 and hear five different tracks in a row using old disco samples, well that's plagiarism, that's taking other people's music.

~Jay Kay

I can do the equivalent of 150 miles per hour and not get stopped. I could quite happily pursue people down the motorway in my helicopter.

~Jay Kay

I like girls who like the countryside, put on walking boots and can bend with the wind a bit. If you're going to live with me, you need to be able to embrace the countryside and wet dogs.

~Jay Kay

I think these days a lot of the younger generation feels that the world owes them something. But you've got to get off your backside and you've got to do all the crap stuff, too.

~Jay Kay

Your private life is your private life and you keep it to yourself. You get more respect that way.

~Jay Kay

Now, I'm the most impatient person that ever walked the planet. However: for the best, you always wait.

~Jay Kay

I am quite fussy about clothes.

~Jay Kay

I have to thank my mum for kicking me out at 16 and making me stand on my own two feet - that's how I got here.

~Jay Kay

I'm 41 now and the right knee has got a bit of a twinge in it. I get about the stage a little less now.

~Jay Kay

Getting an award on Top Gear is better than getting a Grammy.

~Jay Kay

I think it is easy for people to build up an image of what I'm about. I consider myself quite a nice chappy really. I'm decent to people, I stay in and listen to Radio 4.

~Jay Kay

I consider myself very lucky indeed to have had the career I have. I listen to the radio now and you can't tell artists apart.

~Jay Kay

I'm very used to stages and dressing rooms. And dare I say it, much as I like being at home, I love the buzz of a new hotel room.

~Jay Kay

How is the economy supposed to recover when people can't afford to fill the tank?

~Jay Kay

I'm not gonna give the British Government the joy of keeping taxing me. They don't tax art. And all my cars are just a collection of art.

~Jay Kay

I don't watch myself on TV, I don't read the news clippings about me, so when people come up and say, 'What about that story last week?' I go, 'I didn't even know there was.'

~Jay Kay

The ability to last more than six minutes - isn't that what all men want?

~Jay Kay

I think a lot of ladies get quite scared about people like me, 'rock stars', and it can be hard to meet the right sort of person.

~Jay Kay

I am a bit old-school.

~Jay Kay

In my mind, there's a time and a place for putting your foot down.

~Jay Kay

Well, I'm British. I'm proud to be British and I love this country. I'm going nowhere.

~Jay Kay

I learn fast and I take note of what I've been told.
