You'll be much more successful if you follow your dreams and follow your passions.

~Jay Weatherill

Defence is our best attack.

~Jay Weatherill

The two defining issues of this century are both universal but felt locally: the global water crisis and the resources boom.

~Jay Weatherill

We know that defence work results in more than great defence hardware - it can drive innovation and advances in all areas of our life.

~Jay Weatherill

One thing we do know about the threat of climate change is that the cost of adjustment only grows the longer it's left unaddressed.

~Jay Weatherill

You don't get unity by ignoring the questions that have to be faced.

~Jay Weatherill

Civility is perhaps a quaint notion but civility in Parliament is something we should always strive to uphold.

~Jay Weatherill

Obviously any export of uranium to India could only occur within an appropriate international framework to be negotiated by the commonwealth government.

~Jay Weatherill

We have been getting ready to recycle more e-waste by investing in infrastructure, providing grants to local government and working with industry.

~Jay Weatherill

Grace Portolesi is a strong, assertive passionate young woman and she is precisely the sort of person I want in my cabinet and she will have a senior role.

~Jay Weatherill

There is an opportunity for us to renew ourselves. There's an opportunity for us to leave the past behind and present something different for the future.

~Jay Weatherill

People want the freedom. They want to be able to shop. If you don't like the shop trading hours and you're a shop owner, you don't have to open.

~Jay Weatherill

If you present good government, then elections look after themselves.

~Jay Weatherill

I think there is a case for strong action and intervention when there is criminality and when the leaders are corrupt or behaving in a criminal fashion.

~Jay Weatherill

Everybody has to make their own decisions about how they choose to behave.

~Jay Weatherill

All the government decisions remain and won't be altered until I get in the role and have had a chance to discuss them with my colleagues.

~Jay Weatherill

Our commitment to defence goes beyond this. It's a long-term commitment to make SA the home for Australian defence. It's a commitment to providing the right infrastructure and the right people.
