If I had to think of what I would do different in my whole career, it's that I never would have picked up a beer, bottle of vodka. That definitely changed my life. That is an Achilles' heel for me.

~Jayson Williams

That's what prison did for me, it isolated me, you know, it polished me up like a stone.

~Jayson Williams

I went down and played with Magic Johnson at his all-star game in Atlanta. I remember Magic stopped the game and said, 'We need you here with us in L.A.'

~Jayson Williams

I want to be here, for my family. I want to be here for my baby. I want to see the birth of my baby.

~Jayson Williams

If it wasn't for prison, I was in a bad way.

~Jayson Williams

I'll say life is simpler.

~Jayson Williams

I want to see the birth of my baby. Hopefully it's a boy. He can play for St. John's.

~Jayson Williams

I think no athlete wants to end his career on an injury.

~Jayson Williams

I lost my way for a long time.

~Jayson Williams

I could have been better. That's my goal now, to be better.

~Jayson Williams

I always relate respectfully with blue-collar people.

~Jayson Williams

Every day people say you got to move on with your life. You have to move on. And you just can't.

~Jayson Williams

Alcohol is the cause of all my problems.

~Jayson Williams

I will never be able to move on as much as people would like me to.

~Jayson Williams

I give God all the glory. And try to move on. Come home and hug my wife and my children. And thank God for every day that I have with my family.

~Jayson Williams

People say, 'Jay, you're a great guy, you just had a couple of bad nights.' People that have themselves under control don't have a couple of bad nights like that. Plain and simple.
