

Jeff Henderson Quotes

Leadership, Christian, People, Thinking, Moving, Excellence, Failing, Needs, Character, Want, Valuable, Looks, Important, Trying, Breakfast, Preview, Nice, Better Place, Sides, Should Have Listened

Your life moves to a better place when you move at a sustainable pace

~Jeff Henderson

The people you listen to are a preview of the future you.

~Jeff Henderson

Who is in your life asking you the tough questions?

~Jeff Henderson

Excellence requires us to prepare in advance.

~Jeff Henderson

I truly feel that food is a celebration of life. It's the most important, most valuable gift that God gave humans.

~Jeff Henderson

Listen more than you talk.

~Jeff Henderson

Walk humbly but walk confidently. People want to follow confident, humble leaders.

~Jeff Henderson

I hire talented, creative, passionate learners who have a history of turning intention into reality.

~Jeff Henderson

Attempt something so great for God that it is doomed to fail unless God is in it, and you're in it as well.

~Jeff Henderson

Fundraising requires looking someone eye-to-eye and say, "Will you help me" and don't say another thing. Just listen to them.

~Jeff Henderson

We've got to build scale. We're going to hire the best people, build the best systems, and find solutions.

~Jeff Henderson

If we're not careful we spiritualize laziness.

~Jeff Henderson

The church should train the Ritz Carlton on how to serve people.

~Jeff Henderson

Excellence is a signal to God that we are going to dig our ditches but if You don't make it rain, all of this is a waste of time.

~Jeff Henderson

Asking for money is better over coffee than over a computer.

~Jeff Henderson

If you don't have an emotionally healthy staff you won't move forward as an organization.

~Jeff Henderson

Excellence Matters. Excellent people. Excellent vision. Excellent marketing. Excellent strategies.

~Jeff Henderson

For profits think, "We've got to find that finest talent available, pay them what they're worth, and put them into their daily solutions. " Apply the Who to the What.

~Jeff Henderson

We need ask more questions.

~Jeff Henderson

Non-profit organizations think like non-profit organizations. That's the problem.

~Jeff Henderson

Non-profits find the very best Who and put them on their Boards because they don't want to pay them.

~Jeff Henderson

At what point did we begin to think excellence is offensive to God?

~Jeff Henderson

Keep your character several steps ahead of your talent

~Jeff Henderson

What's it like to be on the other side of me?

~Jeff Henderson

Talent matters. Systems matter. Strategies matter. We can't just bring nice people together and think we're going to solve the world's problems.

~Jeff Henderson

I eat "NOs" for breakfast.

~Jeff Henderson

The solutions the non-profits are trying to provide aren't keeping pace with the problems they're trying to survive.

~Jeff Henderson

Charitable giving in the United States has remained at 2% of GDP since 1970.

~Jeff Henderson

I have to look at our staff and ask the hard question - Would I hire them again?

~Jeff Henderson

I want you to be a connoisseur of great questions? Here's one - what would we do if we had no money?

~Jeff Henderson

I love everybody but I don't have to hire everybody.

~Jeff Henderson

Related Links:

- Leadership Quotes
- Christian Quotes
- People Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Moving Quotes
- Excellence Quotes
- Failing Quotes
- Needs Quotes
- Character Quotes
- Want Quotes
- Valuable Quotes
- Looks Quotes
- Important Quotes
- Trying Quotes
- Breakfast Quotes
- Preview Quotes
- Nice Quotes
- Better Place Quotes
- Sides Quotes
- Should Have Listened Quotes