The only sane response to change is to find the opportunity in it.

~Jeff Jarvis

Perhaps we need to separate youth from education. Education lasts forever. Youth is the time for exploration, maturation, socialization.

~Jeff Jarvis

The first step in blogging is not writing them but reading them.

~Jeff Jarvis

Owning pipelines, people, products, or even intellectual property is no longer the key to success. Openness is.

~Jeff Jarvis

Do what you do best, and link to the rest

~Jeff Jarvis

Make linking to the rest an essential part of what you do best.

~Jeff Jarvis

Just as our kids don't understand the difference between broadcast and cable, the line between TV and Internet TV is about to disappear.

~Jeff Jarvis

I wish that Google would realize its own power in the cause of free speech. Google lives and profits by free speech and must use its considerable power to become a better guardian of it.

~Jeff Jarvis

I hate baseball. It's dull. Nothing happens. It's like watching grass - no, AstroTurf - grow

~Jeff Jarvis

The cost of independence has dropped.

~Jeff Jarvis

Just heard the best word in the English language: benign. (And I don't need to see that doctor again for five years.)
