The world is this incredibly blurry, crazy dream that I'm just sort of stumbling through.

~Jeff Mangum

And one day we will die and our ashes will fly from the aeroplane over the sea. But for now we are young; let us lay in the sun and count every beautiful thing we can see.

~Jeff Mangum

How strange it is to be anything at all.

~Jeff Mangum

Usually, I create tunes that are fragmented. I think the biggest obstacle for people with their creativity is that they feel they have to sit down and create this finished, polished product.

~Jeff Mangum

I would go to bed every night and have dreams about having a time machine and somehow I'd have the ability to move through time and space freely, and save Anne Frank.

~Jeff Mangum

I love the idea of a record containing an entire universe; where the sounds span decades of recording from all over the world and all sorts of different sources.

~Jeff Mangum

God is a place you will wait for the rest of your life.

~Jeff Mangum

Soft silly music is meaningful, magical.

~Jeff Mangum

I decided at 10 I wanted to be in a band; everyone else wanted to play football.

~Jeff Mangum

I do feel like it's so important not to take that for granted - that opportunity to share your ideas with intelligent, beautiful people.

~Jeff Mangum

The music is supposed to be healing.

~Jeff Mangum

When I tried to grasp at either what I love or what I hate, I destroyed the very ability of being able to really penetrate the essence of either. By trying to understand it, I would just crush it.

~Jeff Mangum

I went to Louisiana Tech, which is just down the road from where we lived. It was an easy college to get into.

~Jeff Mangum

My songs pretty much revolve in my brain most of the time - usually, whatever's coming next.

~Jeff Mangum

I bring a record home, and it connects with me like nothing else. In my ideal situation, somebody will do that with my record.
