Two quilters who have just met will be strangers only until their mutual passion for quilting is revealed. Then they can talk for hours like the best of friends.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

One can never had too many librarian friends.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

Deception by an omission of the truth is as bad as a lie.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

People who assume my books are only about quilts obviously haven't read them! I've always known that my books are about quilters - in other words, people - rather than quilts or quilting.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

Who said you had to fill his shoes? Wear your own shoes. They're bound to fit better. Walk your own path your own way and you'll be more likely to get to where you need to be.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

Sometimes the most ordinary things are the ones we learn to miss the most.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

I've always wanted to be a writer. Ever since I learned to read, I've wanted to share stories with others the way my favorite writers shared their stories with me.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

Over the years, I've traveled to many places for inspiration and research, including Pennsylvania, Ohio, South Carolina, California, and Hawaii.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

For as long as I can remember, I've always been interested in issues of social justice, political freedom, and civil rights.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

Kate Forsyth's Bitter Greens is an enthralling concoction of history and magic, an absorbing, richly detailed, and heart-wrenching reimagining of a timeless fairytale.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

People need stories...we use stories to teach, to learn, to make sense of the world around us. As long as we need stories, we will need books.

~Jennifer Chiaverini

Ignorant people, whispering cruel rumors, her mother whispered. Pay them no mind.
