It was Scripture that I had hidden in my heart that quickly came to mind when my frustration felt stronger than my faith.

~Jennifer Rothschild

God's love is bigger than our failures and stronger than any chains that bind us.

~Jennifer Rothschild

God's love never quits or fails or walks away.

~Jennifer Rothschild

Revelation isn't just end time's prophecy, it's God showing off his Son and his glory and honoring us, his treasured bride, with a seat at his table forever!

~Jennifer Rothschild

Judges isn't just about people who blow it over and over. It's a picture of God's love that never fails even when we do.

~Jennifer Rothschild

Because God loves us, he lets us know exactly how to have access to him.

~Jennifer Rothschild

God stays faithful to us in spite of our repeated failures.

~Jennifer Rothschild

Loving fathers give their children boundaries so they won't get hurt and can live with peace and purpose.

~Jennifer Rothschild

I think I felt God's love the deepest when I experienced my deepest loss. Amazing how God does that!

~Jennifer Rothschild

God pursues me, he sacrificed for me, and he calls me his beloved!
And, not just me... all of us.

~Jennifer Rothschild

Because God loves us, he gives us lyrics to sing when our hearts can't form words.

~Jennifer Rothschild

The difference between bitter and better is I.

~Jennifer Rothschild

God shows us he loves us by giving us access to himself.

~Jennifer Rothschild

If you just read Leviticus on the surface, you may think it's just a bunch of grumpy irrelevant rules; but, it's actually the way God gave his people access to himself.

~Jennifer Rothschild

God is our loving Father who loves his children perfectly. So, every part of his Word is an expression of his love to us.

~Jennifer Rothschild

Because God loves us, he gives us practical teaching and boundaries to protect our hearts. The whole thing is one big expression of a father's love for his children.

God's Word really carries me every day.

~Jennifer Rothschild

I choose Hosea. Oh, there's no book of the Bible which more beautifully and more painfully demonstrates how very much God loves us.

~Jennifer Rothschild

Lots of the time, we just think of the Bible as history or life lessons or poetry or - unfortunately - a collection of 'thou shall' and 'thou shalt nots!' All those elements are part of Scripture.

~Jennifer Rothschild

Sometimes when I read Scripture, I'm trying to learn something or teach something or change something in my life.

~Jennifer Rothschild

As I reread each book of the Bible, I fell in love all over again - not just with God's Word, but with God himself.

~Jennifer Rothschild

The really beautiful thing about each book of the Bible is that you can find God's love through each chapter because God is the author and God is love.

~Jennifer Rothschild

I love his Word and I hope when readers discover how God communicates his love for them through each book of the Bible, they'll fall deeper in love with his Word too.

~Jennifer Rothschild
