We have a high standard of living. ... In Norway, we've tripled our income since 1970. In the rest of western Europe, income has merely doubled.

~Jens Stoltenberg

The Norwegian response to violence is more democracy, more openness and greater political participation.

~Jens Stoltenberg

By voting, we add our voice to the chorus that forms opinions and the basis for actions.

~Jens Stoltenberg

The answer to violence is even more democracy, even more humanity...

~Jens Stoltenberg

As long as NATO changes when the world is changing, we will be very important for the security of all our allies, including the United States.

~Jens Stoltenberg

Evil can kill a person but never conquer a people.

~Jens Stoltenberg

In the end, democratic societies are stronger and more resilient than any autocracy. And more adaptable too.

~Jens Stoltenberg

We are seeking to avoid a new Cold War, avoid a new arms race, and, therefore, we continue to work for a more constructive relationship with Russia, including political dialogue with Russia.

~Jens Stoltenberg

We see a more assertive Russia, which has implemented a very significant military buildup over several years, and a Russia which has used military force against neighbors, especially Ukraine.

~Jens Stoltenberg

Today we are all Egyptians.

~Jens Stoltenberg

Turkey's a valued ally, important ally for NATO, not the least because of its strategic geographic location, bordering Syria and Iraq and close to Russia and the Black Sea.
