One thing that you hope for when you want to be a musician is that you have that recognizable sound.

~Jerry Cantrell

Rehearsals and this band are two words that don't really go together, kinda like Military Intelligence.

~Jerry Cantrell

Part of the healing process is sharing with other people who care.

~Jerry Cantrell

You feel different every day of your life. You just have to create your own space to survive, personally and professionally.

~Jerry Cantrell

That's always been a dream for me, to be able to collaborate and make music with the people that inspired you to make music.

~Jerry Cantrell

I'm doing the best I can with what I got and that's all anybody in my band is doing.

~Jerry Cantrell

Times change and you have to adapt.

~Jerry Cantrell

Our music's kind of about taking something ugly and making it beautiful.

~Jerry Cantrell

Like everybody, I'm making up my life as I go along.

~Jerry Cantrell

Success has a lot to do with luck, but it also involves a lot of real hard work. The thing about success is you really can't gauge things by album sales.

~Jerry Cantrell

When power ballads come back, we'll get big hair again.

~Jerry Cantrell

To me not one thing is better than anything else, I'm completely proud of everything I've written and recorded.

~Jerry Cantrell

There's not a word that describes us. We're not alternative, metal or grunge - we're not any of that. We're just what we are.

~Jerry Cantrell

Bands don't last. Bands don't last forever - it's a rarity when they do.

~Jerry Cantrell

I can sing fine and I can play guitar fine, but put 'em together and it becomes a thoughtful effort.

~Jerry Cantrell

I've never been a big soloist; I just put in what needs to be there. I'm more of a rhythm player who plays lead - or tries to play lead.

~Jerry Cantrell

I'm just thankful to have a tour and work something I can focus on.

~Jerry Cantrell

Playing for someone else's crowd is always difficult for any band.
