Y'all should come to Cowboys Stadium and watch us beat the Giants' asses.

~Jerry Jones

There are a lot of people with money, but not with the passion to really go spend it.

~Jerry Jones

I grew up with great coaching, and it had nothing to do with sports. I had great parents. I really got some great input from there. They were entrepreneurial, middle-class business people.

~Jerry Jones

Is [football] for everybody? Of course not. But it is a meaningful contribution beyond, I think, other alternatives.

~Jerry Jones

Other sports culminate at different times of the year, but the NFL is in the fourth quarter - that's where the money is.

~Jerry Jones

I have never had a problem dealing in areas of ambiguity. I can make a decision and not have it all lined up just right.

~Jerry Jones

Look, many of us here are regular marines... I will die as a marine because that is my dream.

~Jerry Jones

Nobody is thinking they're going to come out here and put a team here and become a multimillionaire. I don't know anybody that comes into the NFL like that

~Jerry Jones

It's kind of like...with our own checking accounts, just because it's in there doesn't mean you should spend it or can spend it. You know that you have the rent coming.

~Jerry Jones

We've all got to get on the same page.

~Jerry Jones

Only 7 percent of NFL fans have ever been inside an NFL stadium. Seven... have ever been inside. So the NFL is certainly about the Colosseum of Rome. It can't be a studio game.

~Jerry Jones

We have long moved away from some of the principles of law as to what is fair and equitable in the United States. We all see every day that's debatable, 50-50 in almost all cases.

~Jerry Jones

We see every day that our very laws have both sides of the fence.

~Jerry Jones

But if you look at teams that want to share more revenues, they're teams that don't have a lot on the table. They've long since not had any serious investment in their team.

~Jerry Jones

You could have a player that gave you some iffiness but his talent would make a real contribution, but you had to have an overwhelming base of players so you know exactly what you had.

~Jerry Jones

And I completely am one of the most sensitive in that area as far as the NFL is concerned.

~Jerry Jones

I take a good feeling away from what football brings.

~Jerry Jones

You don't see young men walk out and say, "Hey, let's go knock the [stuff] out of each other." You say, "Let's hit some grounders. Let's play catch. Let's shoot some baskets."

~Jerry Jones

Sports that are continuous and never stop don't give us the opportunity to segment our messages.

~Jerry Jones

I could hire every producer in Hollywood - 2,000 producers, let's say - and they couldn't come up with all the soap operas, in season and out of season, that NFL programming gives television.
