I dress in a sophisticated and classy way - I always dress in a way I know my mother wouldn't be embarrassed to see.

~Jessie Ware

Ice cream is my comfort food.

Good music shouldn't have a shelf life.

~Jessie Ware

I did my dissertation on Kafka.

~Jessie Ware

I love Barbra Streisand and Sade who've both had careers in soul and I want my music to have that timeless quality that isn't necessarily now.

~Jessie Ware

If I make a song where I'm happy, I sound completely mad - I think my voice is better-suited for sadder songs.

~Jessie Ware

My grandfather was a Russian-Jewish immigrant who lived in Northern Ireland and apparently when he sang in the synagogue he made everyone cry.

~Jessie Ware

I like how strong Sade is and how she doesn't give away too much.

~Jessie Ware

I want to be as feminine and classic as possible.

~Jessie Ware

Dance music has pushed its way into the mainstream. Which is good for me.

~Jessie Ware

I would like to think I am feminist in some sorts.

~Jessie Ware

I'm not a complicated person.

~Jessie Ware

I guess I'm a real fan of older music, and that's what shaped my taste and the way I sing.

~Jessie Ware

I don't think too far ahead because I want to appreciate what's happening now.

~Jessie Ware

I don't know if I should say this, but I feel more like a singer than an artist.

~Jessie Ware

For me 'You & I Forever' is celebrating the person you love being by your side. This is what it means to others

~Jessie Ware

I am just trying to keep it real.

~Jessie Ware

I can't eat before I go onstage because I've learnt that burping on stage isn't a good thing. It's all about acid reflux.

~Jessie Ware

I don't know if fame will come.

~Jessie Ware

There are so many great singers out there.

~Jessie Ware

A female vocal can lift a song.

~Jessie Ware

I've become one of those annoying people who brings their own food on to planes.

~Jessie Ware

If you're from South London you feel like you're always trying to win people over, so perhaps that underdog passion comes through.

~Jessie Ware

American fans want to meet you, and they wait for that autograph by the stage door. In the UK, it doesn't really happen that much.

I have moments, like a guy saying to me on the tube, "You know, you look a lot like Jessie Ware."

~Jessie Ware

I feel like I've got far more gay fans in America... Maybe they caught wind that I have a cute Jewish brother who's gay.

~Jessie Ware

I've turned down songs that would be much easier to play on the radio that I don't think should be on the album. Maybe I've shot myself in the foot.
