

Jill Stein Quotes

Thinking, Party, People, War, Jobs, Needs, Real, Two, Moving, Rights, Mean, Years, Country, Order, Media, Democracy, Clinton, Wall, Political, Climate

Instead of bailing out Wall Street for the fourth time.. let's bail out the students.

~Jill Stein

Pay attention America. Third party might not win it this year, but we could be seeing the shift away from a two party system unfolding.

~Jill Stein

It's not possible to solve the climate crisis while we continue to expand fracking.

~Jill Stein

We cannot simultaneously fight terrorism, we and our allies, while with the other hand we fund terrorism, arm terrorism and train terrorism.

~Jill Stein

Moving to 100 percent renewable energy means we no longer need and can no longer justify wars for oil.

~Jill Stein

The corporate-powered parties are not gonna do it for us, not the greater or the lesser evil. We have to do it for ourselves. And the minute we stand up and stand together, we are unstoppable.

~Jill Stein

I think that equality needs to be broadened to include equal access to comprehensive healthcare, equal access to jobs, and equal rights in the workplace.

~Jill Stein

There is no such thing as a survivable or local nuclear war.

~Jill Stein

I think it would be a disaster if Donald Trump is elected. It will also be a disaster if Hillary Clinton is elected.

~Jill Stein

In this country, we not only have a right to vote, we have a right to know who we can vote for.

~Jill Stein

There are real solutions right now for us if we stand up with the courage of our convictions.

~Jill Stein

The Green New Deal is about creating economic security for everyone, and doing it quickly.

~Jill Stein

The Keystone pipeline will spew a massive amount of carbon pollution into our fragile atmosphere. It should be stopped.

~Jill Stein

I'm a medical doctor by training. I'm a physician, not a politician. And I'm in this as a mother on fire.

~Jill Stein

This may be news to Big Money politicians, but they actually don't own our votes.

~Jill Stein

We need a broad commitment to human rights across the board. We cannot attain that simply by protecting one oppressed group or the other.

~Jill Stein

We call for cancelling student debt, for bailing out young people like Wall Street was bailed out to the tune of $16 trillion.

~Jill Stein

It takes truth, and it takes speaking truth to power, but because the stranglehold is so tight it seems to take something else - a real political threat.

~Jill Stein

I think it's very troubling to see the reality of where the American political establishment is going - into this big tent, which is one happy Demo-Republican family.

~Jill Stein

The majority of American voters have rejected both Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump.

~Jill Stein

If pigs could fly, yes, of course I would vote for the Democratic Party, but pigs don't fly.

~Jill Stein

If ever there was a mobilizing energy, it is the millennial generation. So we have the power to turn out and even to win this race. Not to split the vote but to flip the vote.

~Jill Stein

It's this mingling of the economic and political elite which is really destroying our democracy.

~Jill Stein

In the world of millennials we are running very strong .

~Jill Stein

We have a system that's really founded on profit and on selling pharmaceuticals as opposed to keeping people healthy and then helping them get back to health.

~Jill Stein

We've seen a great deal of interest from the Occupy movement. It's a diverse movement, not everyone embraces electoral politics, and no one can speak for Occupy.

~Jill Stein

I think people should have no illusions that Hillary [Clinton] is going to solve the climate crisis for us. We are in as much trouble with fracking as we are with coal. They both need to be stopped.

~Jill Stein

New record majority of Americans dislike the two corporate front-runners [Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton] . This is what Lesser Evil leads to. Enough.

~Jill Stein

In the words of Frederick Douglas, power concedes nothing without a demand; it never has and it never will. We must be that demand. We are the ones we've been waiting for.

~Jill Stein

There are 43 million people who are locked into predatory student loan debt, from which there is no exit.

~Jill Stein

We're seeing the convergence of a big, corporate party right now. A sort of bipartisan merger under the figure of Hillary Clinton.

~Jill Stein

The threshold by the Commission on Presidential Debates. In the words of the League of Women Voters, they are a fraud being perpetrated on the American public.

~Jill Stein

The guy [Donald Trump] has a lot of problems - physical, mental, emotional, cognitive. You know, he comes with a whole lot of baggage, and I think it's pretty obvious.

~Jill Stein

Why not liberate voters to actually vote your values?

~Jill Stein

Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump are the most disliked and untrusted candidates for president in American history.

~Jill Stein

If people fear that they have to choose between their job or fixing the climate, they will always protect their job. Because that's how they live to see tomorrow.

~Jill Stein

I think we really have to take a good, hard look at our system of corporate consolidated press. We need to break them up.

~Jill Stein

You cannot solve the climate crisis if you are putting people out of work.

~Jill Stein

The recent AP poll that came out last month said that approximately 90% of the American people felt that the two-party system was failing us in the presidential election.

~Jill Stein

I think we have a very critical role to play, within the spectrum of international law and human rights.

~Jill Stein

It turns out we get so much healthier when we convert to a green energy economy that our health savings alone are enough to pay for the cost of the energy transition.

~Jill Stein

One of the great things about running with Ajamu Baraka is that we speak to all of America.

~Jill Stein

We've got a big happy, one corporate family now uniting the corporate Democrats and the corporate Republicans.

~Jill Stein

I feel very sorry for people who are trapped in an abusive relationship and keep making excuses for their abuser.

~Jill Stein

I affiliated with Physicians for Social Responsibility early on, and actually, their major thrust wasn't nearly as much around community health centers, although that was Jack Geiger's thing.

~Jill Stein

That is enough to win a three-way presidential race. If young people understand they have the numbers and they have the power to come out and turn this election on its head.

~Jill Stein

I think we need equal wages which are living wages.

~Jill Stein

We, of course, need to improve our failing healthcare system, where costs are skyrocketing and 1 in 3 Americans doesn't have the healthcare that they need. Can't afford it, even with their insurance.

~Jill Stein

We cannot guarantee the human rights of any oppressed group alone.

~Jill Stein

I'm one of the few candidates that actually goes out and talks in public, so I say a lot of things based on my experience, my judgment as an environmental health physician, so I say a lot of stuff.

~Jill Stein

Ajamu Baraka comes out of the tradition of the African-American intellectuals, the people who really been standing up for African-American rights and economic rights and workers rights.

~Jill Stein

Democracy cannot function just on who do we fear the most, you know, or who do we hate the most; we need an affirmative agenda.

~Jill Stein

The economic insecurity of the past ten to 15 years, the 2008 Wall Street crash, NAFTA, and the loss of millions of good jobs - these directly grow out of Democratic Party neo-liberal policies.

~Jill Stein

[Most progressive in the Democratic Party] won't stop the Trans-Pacific Partnership or take a position against it, you know, which is an absolute assault on our democracy.

~Jill Stein

I don't pretend to be able to do TV diagnosis, but I think the guy [Donald Trump] has a problem.

~Jill Stein

I was really interested in how a health care center could also be a center for the arts and for music, and for bringing together sort of the isolated elements of the community.

~Jill Stein

Hillary's [Clinton] policies on climate change are a problem too. We ignore her track record at our peril.

~Jill Stein

Who knows what it is, but he [Donald Trump] is incapable of having a consistent thought or policy.

~Jill Stein

The neocons are supporting Hillary [Clinton] just like the neoliberals are. She's seeking the endorsement of Henry Kissinger as well.

~Jill Stein

The Republicans are... there is a small [Donald] Trump remnant, which is going over the cliff right now.

~Jill Stein

The Democratic Party is very afraid of having competition that is actually unmuzzled and that can tell the truth, which is why they keep this fear voting system in place.

~Jill Stein

This is sort of the Cuban Missile Crisis on steroids, what we are doing to Russia right now, and I don't think this is a good idea.

~Jill Stein

I mean, I really loved the mix of personal health and, kind of, community health and justice, and I really saw how they were inseparable.

~Jill Stein

Bernie Sanders started off at about three percent himself and skyrocketed as word got out about him.

~Jill Stein

I would be happy to run a race with Hillary Clinton any time.

~Jill Stein

I really got the best of education , and arts and music and summer camp. I had it great.

~Jill Stein

I'm not opposed to the use of force.

~Jill Stein

The laws of war right now say that we can respond when our country is threatened. That is what international law says.

~Jill Stein

I loved Israeli music, Israeli folk music.

~Jill Stein

The economic misery: who passed NAFTA? You know, Bill Clinton signed that with Hillary's [Clinton] support.

~Jill Stein

You have the Republican establishment that is moving into Hillary's [Clinton] camp. What's happening in this election is sort of proof of principle.

~Jill Stein

[My parents] were very interested in social justice issues, and there was a time, very early on, where my mother, I think, actually went to some demonstrations for integrating housing.

~Jill Stein

I think for the next 50 years I'm not going to be able to stop because of the light that you shine for me and so many millions of Americans.

~Jill Stein

I think, charitable foundations are, in general, a good thing.

~Jill Stein

You have endorsements, everyone from Meg Whitman to the neocon John Negroponte and others who are all saying, you know, we're with Hillary [Clinton] now.

~Jill Stein

It's not a matter of just what we don't like and who we are most afraid of. We need an affirmative agenda if we're going to move forward as a democracy.

~Jill Stein

We have been subject to globalization and financialization and austerity and workers have been thrown under the bus while the one percent is rolling in dough.

~Jill Stein

We call for healthcare as a human right through Medicare for all.

~Jill Stein

Hillary [Clinton] is - you know, she's every bit as much scary on war as Donald Trump is.

~Jill Stein

I actually studied Indian classical vocal music.

~Jill Stein

I used to practice clinical medicine. Now I practice political medicine, because it's the mother of all illnesses.

~Jill Stein

It's no surprise that the corporate media, and many of the nonprofits that are dependent on the big money, they are not allowing our campaign the real alternative to see the light of day.

~Jill Stein

He [Donald Trump] is like - he's a magnet for crime and extortion and, you know, just really criminal investments which are extremely dangerous.

~Jill Stein

Ajamu Baraka is very inspirational.

~Jill Stein

She [Hillary Clinton] wants to start an air war over Syria with Russia, a nuclear-armed power.

~Jill Stein

We don't have to convince people how screwed they are.

~Jill Stein

I was very engaged by the folk music movement. Bob Dylan; Joan Baez; Peter, Paul and Mary. And then I sort of discovered world music, and fell in love with ethnic music of all sorts.

~Jill Stein

We are plunging headlong into a cold war, and we have 2,000 nuclear weapons on hair-trigger alert.

~Jill Stein

We call for a weapons embargo.

~Jill Stein

The problem is that, you know, the corporate press loves [Donald Trump].

~Jill Stein

Is there's always an idea that the party will continue the movement but that movement always dies inside the Democratic Party.

~Jill Stein

I was recruited to sort of be the doc to advocate for communities that were struggling with polluting incinerators, polluting coal plants, toxic waste sites, etc.

~Jill Stein

Where the states are dead set on suppressing political opposition, it's very hard to overcome that.

~Jill Stein

Hillary Clinton, like Bill [Clinton], you know, they're not the solution to the crisis.

~Jill Stein

The climate is not tomorrow. The climate is a year off or maybe 10 years off. So we have to be really clear that we're solving the crisis of economic insecurity at the same time.

~Jill Stein

At a time of great social upheaval, all things are possible.

~Jill Stein

We saw recently that Donald Trump has gotten now over $4 billion in free media exposure, Hillary Clinton over $2 billion, and of course I've had almost none.

~Jill Stein

This is our right [to vote]. I urge people to come out. This hasn't - you know, the courts of law have refused to take this up in a just way. This needs to be decided in the court of public opinion.

~Jill Stein

Democracy is not what we hate the most and what we fear the most. We need to stand up.

~Jill Stein

You don't know what the real problems of a health care system are until you get sick.

~Jill Stein

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- Party Quotes
- People Quotes
- War Quotes
- Jobs Quotes
- Needs Quotes
- Real Quotes
- Two Quotes
- Moving Quotes
- Rights Quotes
- Mean Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Country Quotes
- Order Quotes
- Media Quotes
- Democracy Quotes
- Clinton Quotes
- Wall Quotes
- Political Quotes
- Climate Quotes