I'd rather get a good clean laugh with good material, than an easy laugh by swearing or shocking. That's not clever or comedic, anybody can get a laugh that way, it's too easy.

~Jim Dale

There is no spray can called 'Instant Stardom,' only talent can keep you at the top.

~Jim Dale

The joy about the recording is that you are your own boss. You don't have a director telling you how to do it.

~Jim Dale

Good acting is consistency of performance.

~Jim Dale

You cannot learn anything from success, you only learn from failure.

~Jim Dale

A career in the theatre demands so much commitment.

~Jim Dale

I was always the clown in school. I had a personal put down sense of humor. I wasn't vindictive. I didn't make fun of people.

~Jim Dale

I'm still a kid inside, and adventure is adventure wherever you find it.

~Jim Dale

You've got to love the villain if you have to play him. You've got to find something that you can live with in yourself if you're going to play the villain in a play on stage.
