Start where you are-do anything you can do, and do everything you can do, until you find something you must do! That something is probably your spiritual gift.

~Jim George

Your willingness to serve God is as important as your service to God.

~Jim George

There is no greater treasure than a husband who models godliness before his wife and children on a daily basis.

~Jim George

Faith, prayer, and the Word of God are the weapons God provides you with to fight spiritual battles.

~Jim George

God will bless you and your marriage when you follow His blueprint.

~Jim George

Leaders are hard workers. They never expect more out of the people around them than they are willing to give themselves.

~Jim George

Restoration and hope is available each time you return to God.

~Jim George

You can make your marriage a little bit of heaven on earth by following God's plan of teamwork.

~Jim George

Spiritual warfare is the unseen battle God wages on your behalf.

~Jim George

It's not your schedule that keeps you from praying, it's your failure to realize the importance of prayer.

~Jim George

It's not how you start that's important, but how well you finish!

~Jim George

When you yield yourself in complete and whole-hearted obedience to God, He can do great things through you.

~Jim George

Spiritual maturity is a lifelong pursuit. We grow in spiritual maturity moment by moment, day by day, year by year.

~Jim George

Blessing come to you when you are obedient to God's commands.

~Jim George

Faithfulness and character are noble qualities that God honors.

~Jim George

When you don't understand what is happening, you need to wait, trust God, and rest in His care. He is always faithful to His own.

~Jim George

Serving others prepares you to lead others.

~Jim George

When it comes to the heart and soul, only the Bible can bring true and lasting changes.

~Jim George

View your body as something God has entrusted into your care.

~Jim George

The amount of time we give to something indicates it's importance to us.

~Jim George

Transitions themselves are not the issue, but how well you respond to their challenges!

~Jim George

A man after God's own heart is... a man who yearns to please God, a man who desires to grow spiritually, a man who had a heart that obeys.

~Jim George

Listening is an act of love. When you listen to people, you are communicating non-verbally that they are important to you.

~Jim George

Spiritual joy is what you experience when you choose to give thanks to God no matter what happens-even when things go wrong.

~Jim George

Faithfulness to God requires your obedience, even when it's difficult.

~Jim George

God honors you when you take a stand for what is right.

~Jim George

To experience spiritual victory, you must depend on God's resources.

~Jim George

Don't let less-than-perfect circumstances keep you from trusting God.

~Jim George

Your positive impact on the generations to come will be directly related to the ministry you have in that little place called home.

~Jim George

A good leader will seek the wisdom of others. After all, no man is an island!

~Jim George

Effective leaders allow God to shape them into the kind of people they need to be for each situation they encounter.

~Jim George

There is no substitute for your impassioned prayers on behalf of your children

~Jim George

God has given you two ears--that should tell you something about the importance of listening.

~Jim George

Communication is not so much about what you say, as what you don't say.

~Jim George

As your heart goes, so goes your family! If your heart isn't right, no child raising system, rules, or gimmicks will ever work. As your heart goes, so goes your parenting!

~Jim George

Having the right attitude is fundamental to being an effective leader.

~Jim George

Your tragedy is God's opportunity to show Himself faithful.

~Jim George

Just as water is the only thing that can relieve thirst in the desert, the provision of God's Word is the only thing that can satisfy our spiritual thirst.

~Jim George
