Religion made half of us afraid to die, and the other half afraid to live.

~Jim Palmer

I once dreamed of launching revolutions, sparking movements, mobilizing the masses, and changing everything. Now I've learned the beauty and profound significance of simply loving my neighbor.

~Jim Palmer

You can't win if nobody catches the ball in the outfield. You are only as good as the team you have behind you.

~Jim Palmer

You have to be honest, have integrity, be able to cooperate and get along with other people. Sigma Chi is a great place to learn that and that's why it's a great thing to join this fraternity.

~Jim Palmer

Losing is no disgrace if you've given your best.

~Jim Palmer

The only thing Earl (Weaver) knows about big-league pitching is that he couldn't hit it.

~Jim Palmer

I hate the cursed Oriole fundamentals... I've been doing them since 1964. I do them in my sleep. I hate spring training.

~Jim Palmer

One of the most freeing discoveries these past few years in my relationship with God is discovering that God is not a belief system or a fixed set of theological propositions.

~Jim Palmer

Your time as the entrepreneur is worth hundreds of dollars an hour. If you are doing tasks you could hire out, those are stopping you from earning that kind of money.

~Jim Palmer

If you can't run, and the plays in front of you, you just can't get gay.

~Jim Palmer

Two weeks, maybe three. You never know with psychosomatic injuries You have to take your time with them.

~Jim Palmer

Most pitchers are too smart to manage.

~Jim Palmer

FEAR IS A REACTION YOU HAVE WHEN YOU'RE GETTING CLOSER TO THE TRUTH

~Jim Palmer

There's only one cure for what's wrong with all of us pitchers, and that's to take a year off. Then, after you've gone a year without throwing, quit altogether.

~Jim Palmer

Imagine what else is true if you understood there is nothing fundamentally wrong with you.

~Jim Palmer

There are really only two options - you can feel things, or you can shut down. But, once you decide to feel things, you don't get to pick and choose what you feel.

~Jim Palmer

Maybe being Jesus is simply seeing people as they truly are.

~Jim Palmer

There is a peace deep within myself from knowing that all things are held within and sustained by the love of God.
