You have to find what makes you stable in the storm. Then, no matter what's happening round you, no matter what the hype or the publicity, you can still manage to make leaps in your work as an artist.

~Jimmy Smits

Just give me a good role that allows me to hone my craft and I am a pretty happy camper.

~Jimmy Smits

There's something so familial and intimate between a boxer and his trainer.

~Jimmy Smits

In my college years, I worked as a union labor organizer. I was just one of the many workers trying to do my part to help the community.

~Jimmy Smits

If you're afraid to live your life in a glass bubble, how can you do what we do in this industry?

~Jimmy Smits

I never thought television would or could be a long-term commitment.

~Jimmy Smits

I'm an actor. I love to act. That's my job. I'll leave the politicking to others.

~Jimmy Smits

I've been in California for about 15 years now. You're always in your car and insulated. I miss New York so much.
