Go forward bravely. Fear nothing. Trust in God; all will be well.

~Joan of Arc

All battles are first won or lost, in the mind.

~Joan of Arc

It is better to be alone with God. His friendship will not fail me, nor His counsel, nor His love. In His strength, I will dare and dare and dare until I die.

~Joan of Arc

I am not afraid; I was born to do this.

~Joan of Arc

One life is all we have and we live it as we believe in living it. But to sacrifice what you are and to live without belief, that is a fate more terrible than dying.

~Joan of Arc

How else would God speak to me, if not through my imagination?

~Joan of Arc

I would rather die than do something which I know to be a sin, or to be against God's will.

~Joan of Arc

[Before being burned at the stake for her faith:] Hold the cross high so I may see it through the flames.

~Joan of Arc

Hope in God. If you have good hope and faith in Him, you shall be delivered from your enemies.

~Joan of Arc

Courage! Do not fall back; in a little the place will be yours. Watch!
When the wind blows my banner against the bulwark, you shall take it.

~Joan of Arc

Every man gives his life for what he believes ... one life is all we have to live and we live it according to what we believe.

~Joan of Arc

I was admonished to adopt feminine clothes; I refused, and still refuse.
As for other avocations of women, there are plenty of other women to perform them.

~Joan of Arc

I am the drum on which God is beating out his message.

~Joan of Arc

About Jesus Christ and the Church, I simply know they're just one thing, and we shouldn't complicate the matter.

~Joan of Arc

I answered the voice that I was a poor girl who knew nothing of riding and warfare.

~Joan of Arc

I place trust in God, my creator, in all things; I love Him with all my heart.

~Joan of Arc

I die for speaking the language of the angels.

~Joan of Arc

Children say that people are hung sometimes for speaking the truth.

~Joan of Arc

Since God had commanded it, it was necessary that I do it. Since God commanded it, even if I had a hundred fathers and mothers, even if I had been a King's daughter, I would have gone nevertheless.

~Joan of Arc

If I be not in a state of grace, I pray God place me in it; if I be in it, I pray God keep me so.

~Joan of Arc

I saw them with my bodily eyes as clearly as I see you. And when they departed, I used to weep and wish they would take me with them.

~Joan of Arc

Of the love or hatred God has for the English, I know nothing, but I do know that they will all be thrown out of France, except those who die there.

~Joan of Arc

In God's name let us go on bravely.

~Joan of Arc

I fear nothing for God is with me!

~Joan of Arc

Courage! Do not fall back.

~Joan of Arc

Help yourself and God will help you

~Joan of Arc

Act, and God will act.

~Joan of Arc

You say that you are my judge; I do not know if you are; but take good heed not to judge me ill, because you would put yourself in great peril.

~Joan of Arc

Even though I saw the executioner and the fire, I could not say anything but what I have said.

~Joan of Arc

If I said that God did not send me, I should condemn myself; truly God did send me.

~Joan of Arc

I was in my thirteenth year when I heard a voice from God to help me govern my conduct. And the first time I was very much afraid.

~Joan of Arc

... since God commanded me to go, I must do it.

~Joan of Arc

Alas! that my body, clean and whole, never been corrupted, today must be consumed and burnt to ashes!

~Joan of Arc

The angels are as perfect in form as they are in spirit.

~Joan of Arc

Even little children repeat that oftentimes people are hanged for having told the truth.

~Joan of Arc

I used to say, "Go boldly in among the English," and then I used to go boldly in myself.

~Joan of Arc

If ever I do escape, no one shall reproach me with having broken or violated my faith, not having given my word to any one, whosoever it may be.

~Joan of Arc

Everything I have said or done is in the hands of God. I commit myself to Him! I certify to you that I would do or say nothing against the Christian faith.

~Joan of Arc

Do you know whether or not you are in God's grace? Joan: If I am not, may God put me there; and if I am, may God so keep me.

~Joan of Arc

It is true I wished to escape; and so I wish still: is not this lawful for all prisoners?

~Joan of Arc

Men are sometimes hanged for telling the truth.

~Joan of Arc

The poor folk gladly came to me, for I did them no unkindness, but helped them as much as I could.

~Joan of Arc

The Maid and her soldiers will have the victory. Therefore the Maid is willing that you, Duke of Bedford, should not destroy yourself.

~Joan of Arc

[Responding to trick query about whether she believed herself in a state of grace:] If I am not, may it please God to bring me into it; if I am, may He preserve me in it.

~Joan of Arc
