I create because it makes me connected to something larger than myself.

~Joan Osborne

It's very reassuring and spiritual to be connected with something larger than yourself and the inside of your own head.

~Joan Osborne

You are connected to something very much larger than yourself. And that's a beautiful thing.

~Joan Osborne

There's so many different ways humans have used music to express the spiritual part of our nature and to connect us with the divine. So for me the pathway is through music.

~Joan Osborne

We've been together so long, I hope it just wasn't the drugs.

~Joan Osborne

I do feel a connection to the divine and to the infinite.

~Joan Osborne

I try to bear pain and not panic. I try to remember that it's got an expiration date, even if I don't know when that expiration date is. And I try to use it as fuel for my work.

~Joan Osborne

Singing is a fing blast. When it's really good, it's as good as the best sex. I get nipple erections all the time on stage, I do!

~Joan Osborne

Music has always felt very real to me.

~Joan Osborne

I try to use pain as fuel for my work.

~Joan Osborne

Oh, deeply vulnerable as a woman - to love someone not knowing whether they love me in return.

~Joan Osborne

I feel like I'm getting better as a writer and as a singer and that there is more to discover there, so hopefully other people feel that way too without having to disassociate with the earlier work.

~Joan Osborne

I think I had a tendency to get stuck inside my head and go to some very dark places in my mind, and get stuck there. I couldn't see a way to get out.

~Joan Osborne

I make myself suffer with a lot of self doubt.

~Joan Osborne

What if God was one of us, just a slob like one of us?

~Joan Osborne
