Don't try to be someone else. Be yourself.

~Joe Louis Walker

Just immerse yourself in the culture of the music - it will open some doors for you.

~Joe Louis Walker

I'm a firm believer that you learn a hell of a lot more from your failures than you do from your successes.

~Joe Louis Walker

Nowadays it's hard to get somebody to invest the time - everybody wants to be famous rather than be a good musician.

~Joe Louis Walker

I'm just a restless soul musically.

~Joe Louis Walker

I like to say that I had a really good musical education because it was inclusive of all styles of music and I like it like that.

~Joe Louis Walker

Some of the best advice I was given was that me doing a bad version of me is better than me doing a good version of someone else.

~Joe Louis Walker

When you are sitting in a room and somebody does something or says something and a thought comes, an idea or a melody - you have to just grab it while it's there because it will go away.

~Joe Louis Walker
