There is a purpose in life--to raise men nearer to the likeness of God. Whoever seeks that ideal, daily, finds joy; and in no other way can true joy be found.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

Preparedness and punctuality are two of the most important qualities of a leader.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

Decide what you want to be.... Pay the Price ... And be what you want to be.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

The condition of the body limits, largely, the expression of the spirit.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

To Latter-day Saints there can be no objection to the careful and critical study of the scriptures, ancient or modern, provided only that it be an honest study - a search for truth.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

The only way to build a peaceful community is to build men and women who are lovers and makers of peace.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

Fraud and deceit are anxious for your money. Be informed and prudent.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

A thief, though rich, will continue to steal, but an honest man, though poor, will ever seek to pay his debts.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

There never was a revelation without a question first.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

The Church ever operates in full light. There is no secrecy about its doctrine, aim, or work.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

True freedom, which is full joy, is the complete recognition of law and adaptation to it. Bondage comes from ignorance of law or opposition to it.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

The better men know the Lord, the better may the eternal truths we learn be applied in our daily lives.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

Were we more careful to obey the part of the word of wisdom that deals with the "do's" it might be easier to obey the "don'ts"

~John Andreas Widtsoe

When each man sets his own house in order, the whole world will be in order.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

Finally it may be said that the temple endowment is not secret. All who meet the requirements for entrance to the temple may enjoy it.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

Deceit is the mark of evil. Even if the evil messenger does not appear in person, the test is the same.

~John Andreas Widtsoe

Let every man sing his own song in life.
