Sex: the thing that takes up the least amount of time and causes the most amount of trouble.

~John Barrymore

A man is not old until regrets take the place of dreams.

~John Barrymore

Happiness often sneaks in through a door you didn't know you left open.

~John Barrymore

I would like to find a stew that will give me heartburn immediately, instead of at three o'clock in the morning.

~John Barrymore

Why is there so much month left at the end of the money?

~John Barrymore

When archaeologists discover the missing arms of Venus de Milo, they will find she was wearing boxing gloves.

~John Barrymore

The trouble with life is that there are so many beautiful women and so little time.

~John Barrymore

America is the country where you can buy a lifetime supply of aspirin for one dollar and use it up in two weeks.

~John Barrymore

Love is the delightful interval between meeting a beautiful girl and discovering that she looks like a haddock.

~John Barrymore

You never realize how short a month is until you pay alimony.

~John Barrymore

My only regret in the theater is that I could never sit out front and watch me.

~John Barrymore

My wife was too beautiful for words, but not for arguments.

~John Barrymore

You can only be as good as you dare to be bad.

~John Barrymore

Die? I should say not, dear fellow. No Barrymore would allow such a conventional thing to happen to him.

~John Barrymore

I've read some of your modern free verse and wonder who set it free.

~John Barrymore

Method acting? There are quite a few methods. Mine involves a lot of talent, a glass, and some cracked ice.

~John Barrymore

I am thinking of taking a fifth wife. Why not? Solomon had a thousand wives and he is a synonym for wisdom.

~John Barrymore

If it isn't the sheriff, it's the finance company; I've got more attachments on me than a vacuum cleaner.

~John Barrymore

My wife is the kind of girl who will not go anywhere without her mother, and her mother will go anywhere.

~John Barrymore

You can't drown yourself in drink. I've tried; you float.

~John Barrymore

In Genesis, it says that it is not good for a man to be alone; but sometimes it is a great relief.

~John Barrymore

Dying is the last thing I will ever do.

~John Barrymore

The good die young, because they see it's no use living if you have got to be good.

~John Barrymore

A man must pay the fiddler. In my case it so happened that a whole symphony orchestra often had to be subsidized.

~John Barrymore

Busy yourselves with this, you damned walruses, while the rest of use proceed with the libretto.

~John Barrymore

My head is buried in the sands of tomorrow, while my tail feathers are singed by the hot sun of today.
