God doesn't author hardship but uses it to strengthen us for greater conquests. He never leads us into a storm that He doesn't give us the power to overcome.

~John Bevere

Grace gives us the power to live, and mercy keeps us free from guilt, condemnation, and shame.

~John Bevere

An offended heart is the breeding ground of deception.

~John Bevere

Do not be afraid to allow the Holy Spirit to reveal any unforgiveness or bitterness. The longer you hide it, the stronger it will become and the harder your heart will grow. Stay tenderhearted.

~John Bevere

The Spirit of God is jealous over us; He doesn't want superficial fellowship, but genuine intimacy.

~John Bevere

True humility is absolute obedience and dependence on God. It puts Him first, others second, and ourselves third in all things.

~John Bevere

If we don't risk being hurt, we cannot give unconditional love. Unconditional love gives others the right to hurt us.

~John Bevere

God is seeking those who hear His call to a life of worship. Those who heed are those who will walk in His presence. They will know Him intimately as He will manifest Himself to them.

~John Bevere

We all have life-defining moments. They are like open-book tests, but we don't know we have been examined until it is over.

~John Bevere

We don't honor just to get a reward; we honor because it is the heart of God, and it is our delight.

~John Bevere

Physical maturity is bound to time. Spiritual maturity is bound to obedience.

~John Bevere

When we oppose God's delegated authority, we oppose God Himself.

~John Bevere

We must always keep in mind all legitimate authority is from God, and is given for protection, provision, and peace.

~John Bevere

True honor is an outflow from a heart that fears God.

~John Bevere

Godly fear, faith, and humility is the true threefold cord that can't easily be broken (see Ecclesiastes 4:12).

~John Bevere

We don't want to merely obey God: we need to catch His heart. It is then we will glimpse the wisdom behind His directives, and not just see them as laws.

~John Bevere

Simply put, the promises of God are not automatic; they must be acquired by faith.

~John Bevere

Our response to an offense determines our future.

~John Bevere

The man or woman who doesn't forgive has forgotten the price that Christ paid for them on the Cross.

~John Bevere

Love forgets wrongs so that there is hope for the future.

~John Bevere

Jesus never gave advice

~John Bevere

The greater hardship you endure, the greater the authority God entrusts to you.

~John Bevere

There is no other way to know good from evil, right from wrong, unless we have His Word dwelling richly in our heart. It's good for us to spend time in His Word.

~John Bevere

This truth remains: Only those you care about can hurt you. You expect more from them-after all, you've given more of yourself to them. The higher the expectations, the greater the fall.

~John Bevere

Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

~John Bevere

The Bible is very clear that in the last days men will be "lovers of themselves" (2 Tim. 3:2).

~John Bevere

God is waiting to satisfy us, yet His goodness will not satisfy us if we are already full of other things.

~John Bevere

A PERSON WHO CANNOT FORGIVE HAS FORGOTTEN HOW GREAT A DEBT GOD HAS FORGIVEN THEM.

~John Bevere

We are like horses that must be broken; basically that one should submit to a pastor even if he is wrong.
