I sometimes feel like I need to pinch myself. I feel extremely fortunate.

~John Britt Daniel

Sometimes it's hard to hear criticism, or "maybe let's try a different way." People's feelings get hurt.

~John Britt Daniel

I guess if we do enough shows and keep doing it long enough, then people will get the picture. But I can't really be bothered if they don't get the picture. That's not my concern.

~John Britt Daniel

I recognize that there are some great things about not playing a song live, and just kind of piecing it together as you go.

~John Britt Daniel

I don't have any intention to stop. Rock 'n' roll is my main concern.

~John Britt Daniel

My problem was never with the major label, it was with the guy who we put our trust in and then wouldn't take my phone calls once we'd signed to a major label, who then quit.

~John Britt Daniel

I'm usually way more pleased with the stuff that just kinda happens by accident and is no way a pop song. But sometimes the easiest thing for me to write is pop songs.

~John Britt Daniel

I'm never trying to be commercial or accessible, or saying "let's do this weird stuff, but at the same time we gotta do this safe stuff".

~John Britt Daniel

It's hard being the guy that brings in a song, because you're very, you know, it can be something that you get too sensitive about.

~John Britt Daniel

I love not being in charge of writing all the songs, and being the front person - the whole thing is cool.

~John Britt Daniel

You definitely get more of a band feel to a song if you've been playing a song live a bunch.

~John Britt Daniel

There's no way to replicate a really great vocal sometimes.

~John Britt Daniel

I had some really great experiences doing overdubs.
