Your biggest challenge will be building a great team.

~John Doerr

Ideas are easy. Execution is everything. It takes a team to win.

~John Doerr

People are looking to have more meaning in their lives. It is a sign the technology community is coming of age.

~John Doerr

If the reason you're taking on a mission is for the money you'll make, I believe you'll fail.

~John Doerr

The old economy was about people acquiring a single skill for life; the new economy is about life-long learning.

~John Doerr

It is quite clear that compelling content, which is made available on economic terms that respect the intellectual rights of owners, can be a tremendous spur to the growth of broadband networks.

~John Doerr

No conflict, no interest.

~John Doerr

There's never been a better time than now to start or accelerate a greentech venture.

~John Doerr

Green-tech could be the largest economic opportunity of the 21st Century.

~John Doerr

Change the way we teach; Empower teachers

~John Doerr

It's actually not unlike Google at that stage of development. They had an up-and-running site. It wasn't losing very much money, it wasn't making very much money, but it was growing.

~John Doerr

If you can't invent the future, the next best thing is to fund it.

~John Doerr

Well, there are more writers of blogs right now than there are readers, so that's clearly a vanity phenomenon.

~John Doerr

How do you create jobs? Our companies have generated about 350,000 jobs and that's good.

~John Doerr

Act now. Act with speed.

~John Doerr

Entrepreneurs do more than anyone thinks possible, with less than anyone thinks possible.

~John Doerr

You have to have great design to be competitive in today's markets.

~John Doerr

The next wave of the Web is going to be user-generated content.

~John Doerr

I would staple a green card to the diploma of anyone that graduates with a degree in the physical sciences or engineering in the U.S.

~John Doerr

If we don't embrace a low carbon economy this decade, it won't just harm the planet, but also the U.S. economy.

~John Doerr

There's this large trend - I think the next trend in the Web, sort of Web 2.0 - which is to have users really express, offer, and market their own content, their own persona, their identity.

~John Doerr

The great danger of dealing with venture capitalists is the 'slow maybe'.

~John Doerr

We all know about blogs and how big they are.
