

John Doolittle

Quotes

Country, War, Veterans Day, Retirement, People, United States, Iraq, Giving, Way, Technology, Newspapers, America, Gratitude, Winning, Teacher, Rights, Thanks, Desire, Mistake, President

Developments in medical technology have long been confined to procedural or pharmaceutical advances, while neglecting a most basic and essential component of medicine: patient information management.

~John Doolittle

America's Veterans have served their country with the belief that democracy and freedom are ideals to be upheld around the world.

~John Doolittle

With his trademark courage and conviction, President Reagan led us out of the Cold War, spreading his vision of freedom, resulting in the release of millions of people from the yoke of communism.

~John Doolittle

I extend my deepest gratitude to our Armed Forces and first responders serving both at home and abroad in the war against terrorism.

~John Doolittle

Iran has long sponsored terrorists who carry out homicide bombings in Israeli cities. However, it is a mistake to believe the danger Iran poses is directed at Israel alone.

~John Doolittle

This year's Veterans Day celebration is especially significant as our country remains committed to fighting the War on Terror and as brave men and women are heroically defending our homeland.

~John Doolittle

This war is being played in the realm of public opinion and has dire consequences for our soldiers in Iraq, the future of our country, and freedom around the world.

~John Doolittle

Bullying wasn't okay in elementary school and it isn't okay now, especially when it comes in the form of a U.S. Supreme Court decision.

~John Doolittle

Since the conception of our country, America has held that parents, not schools, teachers, and certainly not courts, hold the primary responsibility of educating their children.

~John Doolittle

The only way the Internet will continue to remain the thriving medium it has become today is to keep it under the control of the United States.

~John Doolittle

The Scouts are a private organization and have every right to set their own membership standards.

~John Doolittle

Democrats were simply hoping to win some political points by getting their outlandish rhetoric published in the newspapers and heard on the talk shows.

~John Doolittle

Democracy is stronger than terrorism, and we will not cower to the terrorists' campaign of fear.

~John Doolittle

Thanks to President Bush and Republican principles, businesses now have more confidence to hire workers.

~John Doolittle

As Americans, we can choose where we work and live, what we drive, which insurance plan is best for us, so why can we not give workers a choice when it comes to their retirement?

~John Doolittle

The United States invented the Internet and it has been our gift to the world, paid for by our taxpayers. The U.N.'s desire to take that gift as a means of increasing its power must be stopped.

~John Doolittle

Related Links:

- Country Quotes
- War Quotes
- Veterans Day Quotes
- Retirement Quotes
- People Quotes
- United States Quotes
- Iraq Quotes
- Giving Quotes
- Way Quotes
- Technology Quotes
- Newspapers Quotes
- America Quotes
- Gratitude Quotes
- Winning Quotes
- Teacher Quotes
- Rights Quotes
- Thanks Quotes
- Desire Quotes
- Mistake Quotes
- President Quotes