You will not do incredible things without an incredible dream.

~John Eliot

Thinking is a habit, and like any other habit, it can be changed; it just takes effort and repetition.

~John Eliot

As soon as anyone starts telling you to be "realistic," cross that person off your invitation list.

~John Eliot

Exceptional thinkers ignore their critics and go about their business making history.

~John Eliot

What turns ordinary people into overachievers is the way they use their minds when they are called on to perform.

~John Eliot

If you really want to find out what you're capable of, you cannot put limits on yourself, and you definitely cannot be cautious.

~John Eliot

Stick with your own perception of yourself-living in your own world-and letting your reality, not the reality presented by other people or particular situations, control your performance.

~John Eliot

Overachievers don't think reasonably, sensibly, or rationally.

~John Eliot

Superstars think like superstars long before the fans or the press anoint them.

~John Eliot

Confidence is not a guarantee of success, but a pattern of thinking that will improve your likelihood of success, a tenacious search for ways to make things work.

~John Eliot

Confidence is consistency of thinking about what is possible and how to make it possible.

~John Eliot

cross that person off your invitation list.

~John Eliot

We must not sit down and wait for miracles. Up and be going!

~John Eliot

Anyone who strays too far from the majority view or the conventional wisdom is bound to be labeled "arrogant," "a maverick," "a Wildman," "weird," or even "crazy."

~John Eliot

High achievers dwell on what they do well and spend very little time evaluating themselves and their performances.

~John Eliot

The true exceptional performer is on super pilot. Every single sense, every fiber of his body is brought together in what he is doing.

~John Eliot

To be a top performer you have to be passionately committed to what you're doing and insanely confident about your ability to pull it off.

~John Eliot

Confidence is a resolute state of mind by which you believe nothing is impossible.

~John Eliot

If you really want to break from the pack, you have to risk being perceived to be as eccentric as these people. You have to think exceptionally-a LOT!

~John Eliot

We tend to view confidence as a product of accomplishment rather than part of the process that leads there. But supremely confident people were confident long before they achieved anything.

~John Eliot

Great performers welcome pressure.

~John Eliot

Unlikely accomplishments are borne out of single-minded purposefulness. Future superstars don't get there by keeping part of their heart in reserve.

~John Eliot

Great performers in all fields seem immune to what outsiders think about them. Their sense of themselves never depends on the feedback-positive or negative-they get from the environment.

~John Eliot

Great performers are, by definition, abnormal; they strive throughout their entire careers to separate themselves from the pack.

~John Eliot

All the great performers I have worked with are fueled by a personal dream.
