I can't compare quarterbacks as apples and oranges in my mind because everybody's in a different system.

~John Elway

It's all about putting the best team together - not just in the front office but the players on the field.

~John Elway

I've experienced the highest of highs and lowest of lows. I think to really appreciate anything you have to be at both ends of the spectrum.

~John Elway

In the long run, the cream always rises and the crap always sinks.

~John Elway

I always believe there's a reason why you go through everything.

~John Elway

You learn a lot more from the lows because it makes you pay attention to what you're doing.

~John Elway

I look at my career and it's still hard for me to believe the way things turned out and how things happened. I've been so blessed.

~John Elway

Being thrown into the fire and getting the thing turned around in a hurry made it more difficult. Things have been done the hard way. I think you learn better when things are done the hard way.

~John Elway

I'm getting the basics with the AFL, but the NFL is a different animal

~John Elway

There are a lot of people who might not get another chance to win a Super Bowl, not just me.

~John Elway

I've always joked about Joe Montana not appreciating his Super Bowls nearly as much as I do because he never lost one. We lost three before we got one

~John Elway

I normally run the 40-yard dash in 4.9, but when a 280-pound guy is chasing me, I run it in 4.6.

~John Elway

Reaching 50, I've started to conjure up thoughts of my own mortality.

~John Elway

As football players you have all the experience on the field. You don't have the experience off the field.

~John Elway

A guy as great as Brett Favre has been for the length of time he's been, you would hope that he would be able to leave the game with a positive flavor in his mouth.

~John Elway

The Arena League is the best thing that could have happened to me because I get to run the whole process. I'm seeing not only the football side but the business side

~John Elway

I'm watching the Weather Channel more than I've ever watched it. I'm scared to death it's going to rain.

~John Elway

I had a great time doing Vegas. It's just that it takes a lot of time.

~John Elway

I'm happy with the Arena Football League right now. I'm happy in Denver.

~John Elway

I don't have any pangs to where I want to be with the Broncos.

~John Elway

It's really been a better situation for me being with the Crush than it would if I were with the Broncos because this has given me a lot more broad range

~John Elway

I don't know if I like being the sentimental favorite.

~John Elway

How ironic, to be my last game that I ever played would be against Dan in a Super Bowl. The thing I always was afraid of was playing in a Super Bowl when it was raining. I can't throw a wet ball.

~John Elway

There's always an asterisk behind somebody's name who hasn't won the Super Bowl. There shouldn't be, but that's kind of the way history works.

~John Elway

There have been openings, but I have not interviewed for any jobs, nor do I want to right now.

~John Elway

I would have loved to have played for Joe Gibbs. Look at his record of winning three Super Bowls.

~John Elway

I was so lucky to walk away with two Super Bowls and know that the last year was positive.

~John Elway

We get done with the game, and it's an absolute downpour 30 minutes later. That's when I thought God was telling me that's enough-time for you to go do something else

~John Elway
