We should always pray for help, but we should always listen for inspiration and impression to proceed in ways different from those we may have thought of.

~John H. Groberg

Sometimes God calms the storm and sometimes He calms his child.

~John H. Groberg

There is a connection between heaven and earth. Finding that connection gives meaning to everything, including death. Missing it makes everything meaningless, including life.

~John H. Groberg

God's love fills the immensity of space; therefore, there is no shortage of love in the universe, only in our willingness to do what is needed to feel it.

~John H. Groberg

You cannot compromise principles to achieve unity

~John H. Groberg

Keep your eye on eternal goals

~John H. Groberg

We can leave a place behind, or we can stay in that place and leave our selfishness behind.

~John H. Groberg

Nothing spiritual to write? Then have spiritual experiences.

~John H. Groberg

Jesus made saving repentance possible and He made baptism meaningful.

~John H. Groberg

You develop faith by doing things that require faith.

~John H. Groberg

Our joy now and forever is inextricably tied to our capacity to love.

~John H. Groberg

I have come to know that we learn much more of what is important when we concentrate on helping others than when we concentrate on our own challenges.

~John H. Groberg

More than anything else we should be concerned about meekness, or our standing in God's sight. If that standing is as it should be, nothing else matters. If it is not, nothing else counts.

~John H. Groberg

Organize priorities so that God is first in our lives.
