There! His Majesty can now read my name without glasses. And he can double the reward on my head!

~John Hancock

We must be unanimous; there must be no pulling different ways; we must hang together.

~John Hancock

A chip on the shoulder is too heavy a piece of baggage to carry through life.

~John Hancock

I urge you by all this is dear, by all that is honorable, by all that is sacred, not only that you pray but also that you act!

~John Hancock

I shall look forward to a pleasant time.

~John Hancock

I glory in publicly avowing my eternal enmity to tyranny.

~John Hancock

...that all may bow to the scepter of our Lord Jesus Christ and that the whole Earth may be filled with his glory.

~John Hancock

The British ministry can read that name without spectacles; let them double their reward.

~John Hancock

Though we are politically enemies, yet with regard to Science it is presumable we shall not dissent from the practice of civilized people in promoting it

~John Hancock

Sensible of the importance of Christian piety and virtue to the order and happiness of a state, I cannot but earnestly commend to you every measure for their support and encouragement

~John Hancock
