A program of sterilizing women after their second or third child, despite the relatively greater difficulty of the operation than vasectomy, might be easier to implement than trying to sterilize men.

~John Holdren

Wildfires are a result of temperature conditions, of soil moisture conditions; and, of course, something has to start it.

~John Holdren

Adding a sterilant to drinking water or staple foods is a suggestion that seems to horrify people, most - than most proposals for involuntarily fertility control.

~John Holdren

A massive campaign must be launched to de-develop the United States! [we] must design a stable, low-consumption economy.

~John Holdren

The e-mails are mainly about a controversy over a particular data set and the ways a particular small group of scientists have displayed that dataset.
