Prayer is the greatest force that we can wield. It is the greatest talent which God has granted us. He has given it to every Christian.

~John Mott

The GREATEST HINDRANCES to the evangelization of the world are those within the Church.

~John Mott

From the day of Pentecost until the present time, it has been necessary to be of one accord in prayer before the Spirit of God will work with mighty converting power.

~John Mott

The history of missions is a history of prayer. Everything vital to the success of the world's evangelization hinges on prayer.

~John Mott

Evangelism without social work is deficient; social work without evangelism is impotent.

~John Mott

The reason why we fail to prevail with unconverted men is due to our more fundamental failure to prevail with God in prayer.

~John Mott

No other generation but ours can evangelize the present generation.

~John Mott

It is easy to magnify human personality and agencies. Prayer recognizes that God is the source of life and light and energy.

~John Mott

Prayer alone will overcome the gigantic difficulties which confront the workers in every field.

~John Mott

Words . . . present a picture of the inward man.

~John Mott

Every other consideration and plan and emphasis is secondary to that of wielding the forces of prayer.

~John Mott

Such highly qualitative leadership is demanded especially in the realm of the fostering of right international relations. Here the demand is simply irresistible.

~John Mott

You ask me, How much time? I do not know. I know it means time enough to forget time.

~John Mott

The world asks, How much does he give? Christ asks why does he give?

~John Mott
