The presence of the Holy Spirit is the keystone of all our hopes.

~John Nelson Darby

God's ways are behind the scenes, but He moves all the scenes which He is behind.

~John Nelson Darby

God is sufficient in all ages for His church.

~John Nelson Darby

I go farther, and say, that it is plainly our duty to desire pastors and teachers to take the care of such congregations, and that God did raise up such in the church as we see it in the word.

~John Nelson Darby

Nothing is more prominently brought forward in the New Testament than the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

~John Nelson Darby

If we wait upon God, there is no danger. If we rush on, He must let us see the consequences of it.

~John Nelson Darby

Separation from evil is the necessary first principle of communion with Him ... Separation from evil is His principle of unity

~John Nelson Darby

Be assured that God does more in us than we for Him; and that what we do is only for Him in proportion as it is He Himself who works it in us.

~John Nelson Darby

The Reformation did not directly touch the question of the true character of God's church.

~John Nelson Darby

Christ preferred the poor; ever since I have been converted so have I.

~John Nelson Darby

During my solitude, conflicting thoughts increased; but much exercise of soul had the effect of causing the scriptures to gain complete ascendancy over me.

~John Nelson Darby

Obedience to the word in humility of mind never confuses.

~John Nelson Darby

I add, that those who are bent on restoring the whole church ought to be well instructed in the word, and to abstain from doing anything under the pretext of simplicity.

~John Nelson Darby

Jude has a very different character. It is not the cradle of Christianity, or of the assembly on earth: it is its decay and its death here below. It does not keep its first estate.

~John Nelson Darby

The great guardian principle of all conduct in the church of God is personal responsibility to the Lord.

~John Nelson Darby

Every Christian will allow that sin is an evil, and that it is our duty not to commit sin.

~John Nelson Darby

The Epistle is a correction of profession without life, and most valuable in this respect.

~John Nelson Darby

I held apostolic succession fully, and the channels of grace to be there only.

~John Nelson Darby

Let those who like society better have it.

~John Nelson Darby

By one Spirit we are all baptised into one body.

~John Nelson Darby

Among the children of God, it was they who were most able to rightly divide the word of truth.

~John Nelson Darby

To rest satisfied with existing evils, as if we could do nothing, is not obedience; but neither is it obedience to imitate the actions of the apostles.

~John Nelson Darby

After deep exercise of soul I was brought by grace to feel I could entirely.

~John Nelson Darby

It is the desire of our hearts, and as we believe God's will under this dispensation, that all the children of God should be gathered together as such, and, consequently, as not of the world.

~John Nelson Darby

I can say, Christ has been my only object; thank God, my righteousness too... Hold fast to Christ.
