The rule of surfing is never tell anyone where you go.

~John Slattery

I was a horrible limo driver: I ran out of gas with passengers in the back and I used to get lost on a regular basis.

~John Slattery

My mom used to wear the fragrance Poison when I was younger, and I remember that scent and the purple bottle. That was my first [perfume] memory.

~John Slattery

You have to fight for what you need to fight for.

~John Slattery

Memories are just stories we tell ourselves about our past; and that's often why they don't match when we've shared the same experiences with someone.

~John Slattery

When I was growing up, the top movies dealt with grown-up, complex emotions.

~John Slattery

I don't have to worry about how my movies sell because I'm not the guy in front.

~John Slattery

But the path you end up on means that you have to close a lot of doors, too.

~John Slattery

And I don't want to jump out of an airplane - I've done that.

~John Slattery

I guess, you make a big studio film, you spend a lot of money on it and you hope people go see it. It's really risky.

~John Slattery

I think the moments that are difficult for anybody are when you see what your life could be, if only you had the courage to take the steps needed.

~John Slattery

I've never directed anything before 'Mad Men,' so I don't feel I have any advice for the other directors.

~John Slattery

My wife tells me I need to learn to be more patient with my son.

~John Slattery

The good thing about directing yourself is that you get over yourself.

~John Slattery

I'm a little kid at heart, so my eyes light up when everything is lit.

~John Slattery

I'm proud of myself that I had the courage to experiment with crazy hairstyles and some fashion things.

~John Slattery

Let's face it, making movies is all risk. Most of the time, batting average-wise, the reward does not outweigh the risk.

~John Slattery

I think I gravitate towards people who express themselves in a simple and funny way.

~John Slattery

You put a movie star or a bunch of movie stars in a movie, it doesn't mean people are gonna go see it. It's been proven time and time again.

~John Slattery

I've dyed my hair a million times and it looks terrible, always. It just looks fake. And it doesn't make me look that much younger.

~John Slattery

Viewers can hate a character and at the same time can't take their eyes off of him.

~John Slattery

When I first started, I was kind of surprised that anyone would ever hire me at all. So I took everything that I was offered.

~John Slattery

I like to try the scene over and over, but given the confines of television, I don't have that option.

~John Slattery

I've done a lot of pilots. A lot of shows. You're young and you do a job just because you know someone gave you a job.
