It is true intelligence for a man to take a subject that is mysterious and great in itself and to unfold and simplify it so that a child can understand it.

~John Taylor

There's always been an assumption that ocean shipping coming in and out of the Great Lakes is critical to the economy. It isn't.

~John Taylor

Supposing I live, I have got a work to do; and if I die, I shall still be engaged in the cause of Zion . . . If we live, we live to God; and if we die, we die to God; and we are God's, any way.

~John Taylor

The Lord is our God, our judge, and our king, and He shall reign over us.

~John Taylor

And though I ebb in worth, I'll flow in thanks.

~John Taylor

Our duty is to preach the gospel to all men.... This is what God expects of us

~John Taylor

Tis a mad world, my masters.

~John Taylor

I have not revoked this law, nor will I, for it is everlasting, and those who will enter into my glory must obey the conditions thereof; Even so Amen.

~John Taylor

I would rather trust in the living God than in any other power on earth

~John Taylor

Do we have Steve Jobs to thank for the iPod and iPod shuffle? iTunes? I think so. He changed the way we hear and think about music.

~John Taylor

It is necessary men should be tried and purged and purified and made perfect through suffering.

~John Taylor

A man, as a man, could arrive at all the dignity that a man was capable of obtaining or receiving; but it needed a God to raise him to the dignity of a God.

~John Taylor

We're getting to the point where it's important for each platform to have unique, differentiated titles -- so that if consumers want to buy that game, they have to buy that system

~John Taylor

Where did this commandment come from in relation to polygamy? It also came from God... When I see any of our people, men or women, opposing a principle of this kind... I consider them apostates.

~John Taylor

If we take good care of one another, God will take care of us.

~John Taylor

If you do not magnify your calling, God will hold you responsible for those who you might have saved-had you done your duty.

~John Taylor

A doctor is a man who writes prescriptions, till the patient either dies or is cured by nature.

~John Taylor

Put your trust in the living God and all will be right in time and eternity.

~John Taylor

The only man who really needs a tail coat is a man with a hole in his trousers.

~John Taylor
