Our love should not be just words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action.

~John the Apostle

God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him.

~John the Apostle

In this is love, not that we loved God but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

~John the Apostle

Let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.

~John the Apostle

My most treasured possessions are not things; they are only things, my friends, family and animals are what counts.

~John the Apostle

God is light; in him there is no darkness at all.

~John the Apostle

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God

~John the Apostle

Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.

~John the Apostle

There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

~John the Apostle

Beloved, we are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

~John the Apostle

So shine on through these days we have to fill.

~John the Apostle

My Peace I leave with you

~John the Apostle

How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help? Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action.

~John the Apostle

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

~John the Apostle

He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

~John the Apostle

But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him?

~John the Apostle

The night cometh when no man can work.

~John the Apostle

Thou shalt never wash my feet.

~John the Apostle

No murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

~John the Apostle
