I don't know how you can go your whole life and not listen once to Bob Marley - what's the point?

~Jon Fishman

I mean people have compared us to like the Grateful Dead and all these like psychedelic sixties bands.

~Jon Fishman

We like where we live and we wanna participate in our neighbourhoods and communities and stuff and try to- we're not like benevolent- it's pretty basic.

~Jon Fishman

You look at the fact that for millions of years species on earth have been developing and we've been knocking them off at like a hundred a day.

~Jon Fishman

Led Zeppelin was pretty much what made me pick up drum sticks.

~Jon Fishman

But I do think that we approach music, in of itself, with a religious attitude.

~Jon Fishman

When I was seven or eight I was really into Cream, really into Led Zeppelin.

~Jon Fishman

Phish has never had anything to do with any trends at all in America.

~Jon Fishman

Where were living we have a certain amount of our profit every year its like a percentage 5 or 7% or something like that that we set aside specifically for charity things.

~Jon Fishman

I think that Phish has been a band, we've all had- I've had a great life growing up and everybody in my band's had a really good life, none of us have got anything to complain about at all.

~Jon Fishman

For me from a pretty young age up until about 21 years old hallucinogenics had a huge place in my life.

~Jon Fishman

I think that you really don't have a choice, when you see that things are wrong the only choice you really have is to just do what you can to make it better.

~Jon Fishman

People are trying to live freely outside of, or within a system that maybe for them on a day-to-day level isn't as free... I definitely think we're positively orientated.

~Jon Fishman

Nirvana was like that- Nirvana was like the only band to come out of that- it was like the same thing, Seattle was like this whole scene and it was like this big scene that was thrust upon America.

~Jon Fishman

I just wanted to say one more thing: I also think that when you go to play music, you're there to play music.

~Jon Fishman

You're not there to spread any particular- if you're Bob Marley you're there to spread a message, but very few people can do that effectively without shoving opinions down someone's throat.
